Newspapers, radio stations and educational institutions all pitch in to help make the day memorable.

Convict Killed, 36 Hurt In Prison Riot In Missouri

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—Another riot broke out in Missouri's trouble-ridden state prison Saturday. One convict was killed and about 36 were hospitalized.

Gun-wielding officers quelled the uprising in about an hour.

Warden Ralph Eldon said all convicts were locked in their cells again by 3 p.m. and extra forces of guards, highway patrolmen and city police had the situation under control.

Eldon said Joseph R. Coffey, 26, serving a 6-year term from Butler County, Missouri, was killed by a guard's gunshot at the top of the stairs in one cell block.

The warden said Coffey and other convicts were throwing chairs and other furniture down the stairs at the guards and were starting small fires.

The trouble started when one of the convicts in the cell block yelled, "flat dog," in protest against the boloney the convicts were served at their afternoon meal, H. N. Headger, a guard in the hall, told reporters.

Gov. Phil M. Donnelly arrived at the prison about the time the convicts were locked up again.

The prisoners staged a demonstration Friday, just a month to the day after the wild riot of Sept. 22 when four convicts were killed, 30 injured, and seven prison buildings burned.

Friday's uprising broke out in a dining hall as the prisoners protested about their food.

Deputy warden William P. Steinhauer said the yard was littered with broken bricks Saturday, but the convicts were herded back into their cell blocks within minutes after the trouble started.

Youngdahl Refuses To Disqualify Self In Lattimore Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. District Judge Luther W. Youngdahl refused Saturday to disqualify himself as trial judge in the case of Owen W. Lattimore, and denounced as "scandalous" a government affidavit accusing him of bias and prejudice.

Judge Youngdahl threw out the affidavit filed against him by U. S. Atty. Leo A. Rover, who complained that Youngdahl had a "fixed, personal bias and prejudice" in favor of Lattimore and against the government.

Lattimore, far Eastern affairs specialist, is under indictment on charges of lying to the Senate Internal Security subcommittee in testifying he had never been a follower of the Communist party line or a promoter of Red interests.

Judge Youngdahl has been assigned to hear the case, including any motions dealing with that and other indictments pending against Lattimore.

Youngdahl had thrown out four of seven previous charges against Lattimore, although two of the four later were reinstated by an appeals court.

U.N. Support Has Grown; Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today a survey shows support of the American people for the United Nations has increased nearly 20 per cent in the last three years, or from 43 to 62 per cent.

He added in a brief informal talk to a 55-member committee promoting United Nations Day tomorrow that he believes "in our time we are going to come very close to permanent peace."

Today is the ninth anniversary of the founding of the U. N.

Elect McFarland Head Of I.U. Dad's

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—J. Glenn McFarland of Springfield today was elected president of the University of Illinois Dad's Assn. at the school's annual event.

School officials estimated 8,000 to 10,000 dads were on hand for the occasion and the football game between Syracuse and Illinois.

Other officers of the association elected are: first vice president, Robert White, Sullivan; second vice president, Fred N. Baxter, Glen Ellyn; third vice president, Harold Taylor, Effingham; and treasurer, Carl W. Parker, Rantoul. E. E. Stafford, dean of men at the University, was re-elected secretary.

'Bullet Lou' Kirn, Noted Navy Flier Survives Rare Disease

WASHINGTON (AP)—The skill of a team of Navy doctors and corpsmen and the old fortitude that helped him crash football lines two decades ago has saved Capt. Louis J. Kirn from death by a rare disease.

Today "Bullet Lou" Kirn, famous as an Annapolis halfback and a flier in Pacific air-sea battles, Naval hospital in nearby Bethesda, Md.

No one seems quite sure why Kirn is alive. He says the doctors saved him. The doctors say Kirn's indomitable will kept him going for four weeks during which he was paralyzed, without the power to move or breathe—a body in which only the brain, the vision and the heart continued alive.

The disease is not completely unknown, but the recorded cases have been comparatively few and the survivors even fewer.

It was labeled for some years as "Landry's disease," but since about 1916 has been designated in medical books as Guillain-Barre disease, taking the name from two doctors who made a study of the malady.

It strikes with stealth, Kirn, in the healthy, early 40s, got up the morning of last March 1, started hustling about to go to work. He went to brush his teeth, discovered that he couldn't squeeze the toothpaste tube. He tried a push-up exercise to test his arms — and fell flat on his face.

The disease progressed swiftly. Within 48 hours he was a complete paralytic.

Guillain-Barre disease, say the Navy doctors, is an "ascending" type of paralysis—it appears at the extremities and works up toward the spine and brain. If it reaches the brain death is certain; even if it doesn't, life is uncertain.

Admit Rearmed Germany To NATO: Soviet Union Denounces Agreement

Proposes Big Three Meeting

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union Saturday vehemently denounced the London-Paris agreements for the rearming of Western Germany and proposed again a meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers to settle the problems of reunifying Germany.

The Soviet note, suggesting that the meeting be held next month, was handed to the American, British and French ambassadors at the very time the London accords bringing Western Germany into the Western defense alliance were being signed in Paris.

This decision of rearming Western Germany, the note said, "radically contradicts the interests of the maintenance of peace and intensifies the threat of a new war in Europe."

Few Western diplomats were surprised by the timing of the note which, in effect, rejected previous Western conditions for a Big Four meeting. These included demands that the Soviet Union agree to sign an Austrian independence treaty and to hold genuinely free all-German elections before any such conference takes place.

The note condemned the London-Paris agreements as "opening the way for reestablishment of German militarism."

"Western Germany would be turned into a dangerous hotbed of a new war in Europe," said the note given to the ambassadors by Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov at the Foreign Ministry.

Again proposing a meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers, the note suggested that the conference discuss:

1. "The reestablishment of the unity of Germany on a peace-loving and democratic basis and the carrying out of all-German elections."
2. "Concerning the withdrawal of the occupation troops of the four powers from East and West Germany."
3. "Concerning the convocation of an all-European conference to examine the question of the creation of a system of collective security for all Europe."

As for Austria, the Soviet Union said it has already agreed to authorize its ambassador in Vienna to take part in meetings there with representatives of the Western Big Three and the Austrian government on the question of an independence treaty.

McCarthy made public Saturday a letter in which he invited Watkins to testify before the Senate Investigations subcommittee, sometime prior to Nov. 8, about Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker's role in the Maj. Irving Peress case.

Watkins, in Salt Lake City, first refused to comment, then said in a statement:

"I have commitments which will prevent me from appearing before the McCarthy subcommittee prior to Nov. 8 but will be glad to appear at any mutually convenient time after said date."

Peress, a New York City dentist, has been described by McCarthy as a "Fifth Amendment Communist."

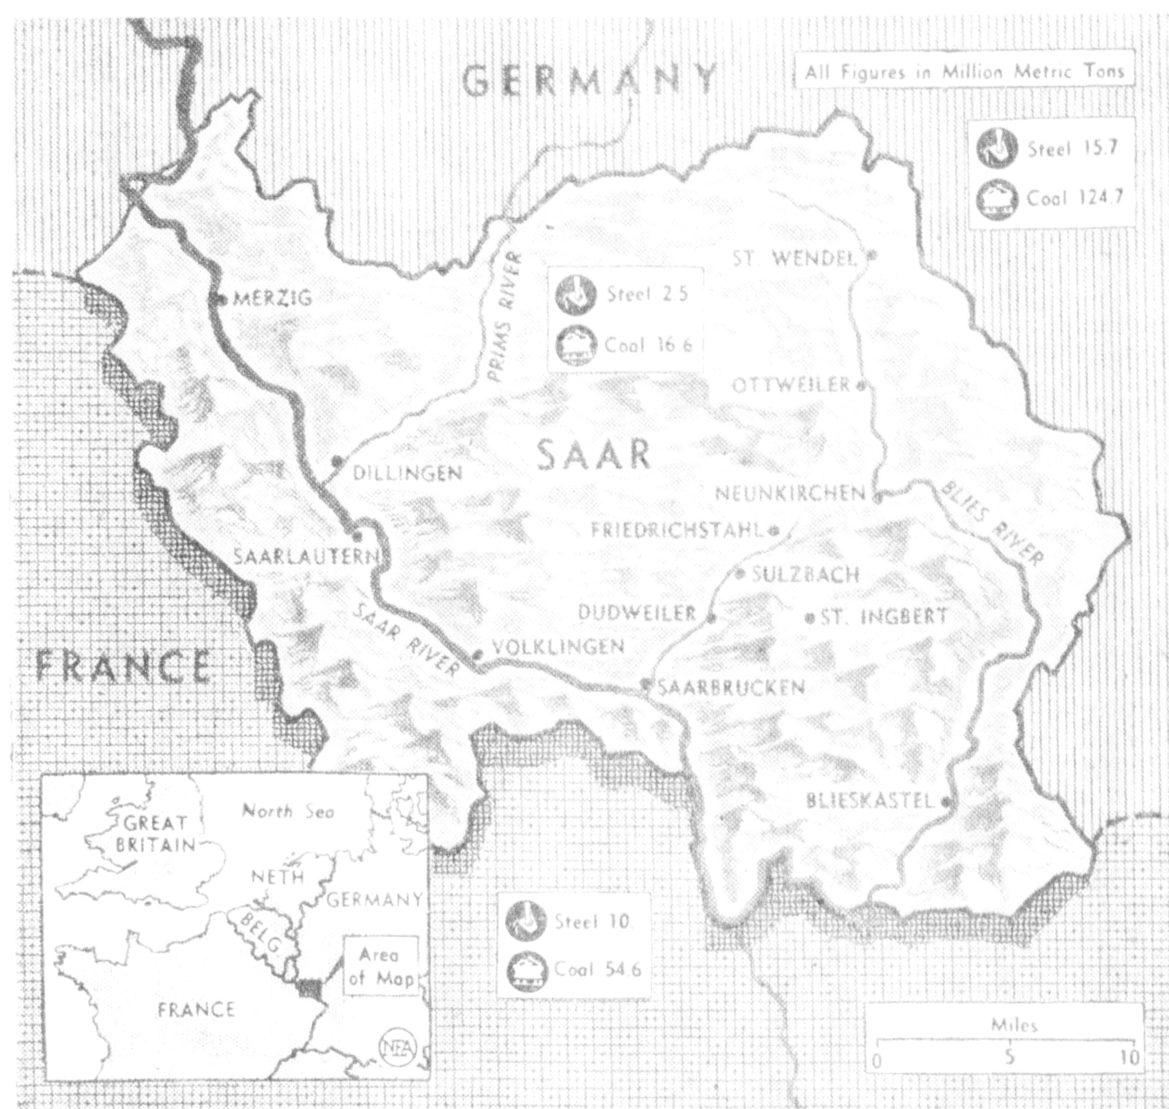

One of the counts on which the special committee recommended McCarthy's censure was the way in which, as chairman of the investigations subcommittee, he questioned Zwicker last Feb. 18 about promotion and honorable discharge of Peress.

The special committee called McCarthy's conduct toward Zwicker, a much decorated combat veteran, "reprehensible" and "unexcusable."

McCarthy wrote Watkins that the committee's report "indicates that you must have some information as to who was culpable (for the promotion and honorable discharge of Peress) and some information to the effect that Zwicker was not."

"This is information for which our investigating committee has been searching," McCarthy continued, adding that he therefore was inviting Watkins to appear.

Saar—Area of Industrial Might and Strife

The Saar, rich coal mining and steel producing area (shaded river valley shown on above Newsmag) has been a source of friction between France and Germany since 1870. Although governed autonomously it is in the French occupation zone. The Saarlanders are bound to France by an economic union much to the dissatisfaction of Germany. To break the "log jam" the Western allies want to "Europeanize" the area in which both countries would yield part of their claims. This is imperative if West Germany is to be brought into NATO and the new Brussels Treaty Organization. The main problems are political and while agreements have been reached they are not textually final. Germany wants pro-German parties in the Saar to be able to participate in free elections. The French oppose free elections, fearing the resurgence of German nationalism if pro-German parties are allowed to campaign in the Saar. France also demands precautions against the Saar again becoming a part of Germany. Boxes on map give comparative steel and coal production of France, Germany and the Saar.

McCarthy Asks Watkins To Testify Before Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), fighting censure charges, Saturday asked Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) to testify before the McCarthy subcommittee and tell who was "culpable" in the Peress case.

Watkins is the chairman of a special committee of three Republican and three Democratic senators that unanimously recommended in a Sept. 27 report that McCarthy be censured by the Senate.

A special Senate session has been called for Nov. 8, the week after the congressional elections, to act on the recommendation.

McCarthy made public Saturday a letter in which he invited Watkins to testify before the Senate Investigations subcommittee, sometime prior to Nov. 8, about Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker's role in the Maj. Irving Peress case.

Watkins, in Salt Lake City, first refused to comment, then said in a statement:

"I have commitments which will prevent me from appearing before the McCarthy subcommittee prior to Nov. 8 but will be glad to appear at any mutually convenient time after said date."

Peress, a New York City dentist, has been described by McCarthy as a "Fifth Amendment Communist."

McCarthy wrote Watkins that the committee's report "indicates that you must have some information as to who was culpable (for the promotion and honorable discharge of Peress) and some information to the effect that Zwicker was not."

Meek; Chance 'Punky' Master Seems Headed For Children's Home

CHICAGO (AP)—Joseph T. Meek, GOP nominee for United States senator, said Saturday night that "Republicans are aroused" and that his prospect for winning are "getting brighter every hour."

"Those who talk about voter apathy are going to be surprised," he said in a statement. "Republicans intend to finish the job. Their anger over New Deal graft, corruption, subversion and immorality will be vented at the polls Nov. 2."

Meek said he has "four of the world's finest people in my corner, how can I lose?" He added:

"The President told me last week in Indianapolis nothing would make me happier than to have me in the Senate. The Vice president said he felt the people know me well enough to put me there. Senator Dirksen asked all those wonderful precinct workers to get busy, and the governor directed them to get the job done."

"I think Illinois will respond to this appeal and I am determined not to let them down."

Summing up the campaign in Illinois, Meek said:

"We came back to Cook county a week ago with the well wishes of most downstate people generally. By contrast, my opponent (Sen. Paul Douglas) has concentrated in a few areas where he could harp on gloom and doom and collect spotty support and we knew he had not sold his doubletalk to most voters."

Douglas told a rally of Democratic women's clubs that the stated reason for the veto was that Congress provided no way to raise the revenue to meet the costs. He added:

"Among other things, administration leaders demanded passage of their program for raising postal rates before taking any pay legislation. But their plan for raising postal rates would have loaded virtually all of the added costs on the average citizen, the users of first class letter mail."

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) asserted Saturday that "The Old Guard" induced President Eisenhower to veto legislation "bringing federal workers' pay in line with living costs."

The measure would have provided a 5 per cent boost in pay scales.

Douglas told a rally of Democratic women's clubs that the stated reason for the veto was that Congress provided no way to raise the revenue to meet the costs. He added:

Meek; Chance 'Punky' Master Seems Headed For Children's Home

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—An unhappy 14-year-old boy disturbed by a domestic tragedy in which his mother was slain, seems headed for a children's home. And without his job Punky.

Waller Smith Jr., now in the friendly custody of Hancock County Sheriff Carson C. Davis, had high hopes Saturday his missing mongrel dog, half collie and half chow, had been found.

But it developed the dog found in a Cleveland suburb, belonged to someone else.

Residents of this town of 24,000 people still hunted for Punky and lavished affection on the boy. At least 15 others have been received for his adoption. Others have sent him money totaling more than $141.

Sheriff Davis said it was probable Walter would be sent to the county children's home next week while court officials studied his case. It had been planned to turn him over to his father, a Galesburg, Ill., mechanic. But Walter said he didn't want to go to Illinois, and at Galesburg, the father, Walter Merrill Smith, told a newsmen he does not plan to go to Findlay.

The father said the boy would have to show a desire to rejoin him before there could be a reunion.

Straw Poll Indicates Four GOP States Will Go Demo

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A changing political complexion is indicated for at least four states—New York, Arizona, Colorado and Minnesota—by public opinion samplings reported in newspapers across the country.

The "undecided" vote is a big factor in many of the political pulse readings and could change the indicated outcome.

But if the polls turn out to be accurate, the prospects are for Democratic governors in all four states, now ruled by Republicans.

Another state, New Jersey, is accurate, the prospects are for its way to losing one of its two GOP senators, according to an opinion check there.

In Iowa, straw voting has come up with contradictory results. In Republican South Dakota, a status quo is indicated.

New York, one of the more heavily polled states, seems to be leaning toward the Democratic column. Its straw voters are turning in a handsome edge for Averell Harriman, who was active in the New York "Fair" Deal administrations, 41.

Settle French-German Dispute Over Saar

PARIS (AP)—In ceremonies of the greatest historic significance, 15 Western nations signed agreements Saturday to bring 500,000 rearmed West Germans into the Allied defensive alliance against Communist aggression. The action brought immediate and unfavorable Soviet reaction.

The last hurdle was dramatically cleared by an 11th hour compromise settlement of the long and acrimonious dispute between France and West Germany over the future of the coal-steel rich Saar—once German, now tied economically to France.

As the foreign ministers solemnly affixed their signatures to the pact, the Soviet Union denounced them as war-breeding instruments in notes to the United States, Britain and France. The Russians proposed once again that the Big Four meet next month and wrestle with the German problem—on Soviet terms.

All agreements reached are subject to parliamentary ratification. This may be difficult in France and West Germany where many political leaders favor another try at ending the cold war with Russia first.

Aside from the Saar agreement, which isn't textually final as yet, these things were done:

1. The United States, Britain, France and Germany agreed to end the Allied occupation of West Germany and to restore all but full sovereignty to the West Germans.

2. Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, West Germany and Italy joined in an enlarged Brussels pact which contains more definite controls over armament of its members than does the North Atlantic Treaty Organization pact.

The United States and Canada, although not members of the Brussels group, are co-sponsors of this treaty.

These pacts were signed in the French Foreign Ministry's gold and white state dining room under glaring floodlights. Then the whole group—all except the German delegation—moved over to the NATO building on a hill near the Eiffel Tower and signed protocols to admit West Germany to NATO membership.

The protocols also provide for placing 12 rearmed West German divisions, and a small air force and navy under command of the NATO commander in Europe, who presently is American Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther.

When all was done Secretary of State John Foster Dulles sent a message to President Eisenhower saying:

"I am happy to inform you that everything including the Saar, has been signed, sealed and delivered. I know you will rejoice with me that unity and freedom of Europe, to which you contributed so indispensably, seems now likely to be preserved."

French Premier Pierre Mendès-France and German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer reached their all-important agreement on the Saar as the diplomats from the other 13 nations waited in a Foreign Office antechamber.

Finally they agreed to give the one thousand mile square Saar area a "European" status—at least until the long waited peace conference for a reunified Germany. It will be under the supervisory control of the seven-power Brussels group.

Pete Riggs To Talk On 'Biggest Crook'

"The Biggest Crook in Jacksonville" will be the sermon subject of Dr. Pete Riggs, dynamic young evangelist, who will spend up to two weeks' revival this evening at the Central Baptist church, West State and Church streets.

This is the first revival Riggs has ever conducted in his home city in the seven years he has been doing evangelistic work, although many local residents heard him during the Berra Christian church revival last year.

Tonight's service at 7:30 o'clock will bring to an end a series of overflow meetings, at which 207 Riggs will speak at John Brown University, Sloan Springs, Ark. of which he is an alumnus. Next Sunday he will open a union evangelistic campaign at Newton Kansas, in the city auditorium.

Oct. 24 Is The Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Of Big Stock Market Crash, Start Of Depression

By RADER WINGET

NEW YORK (AP)—A man looked at the clacking stock market ticker, raised a gun to his head and fired. "Tell the boys I can't pay," he sobbed.

Then he died.

In another town another man quietly slumped to the floor of a heart attack. The stock ticker chattered away as the body was removed.

In hundreds of brokerage offices around the nation, men clustered about tickers watching the prices of their stocks plummet. Most were tight lipped, their sleepless eyes rimmed with red. A shrug of the shoulders, and one by one they walked away—wiped out. Some men wept silently, some hysterical women screamed.

"Business is fundamentally sound," they told each other. "It is only a shakeout. The worst is over. Now is the time to buy sound common stocks."

It was 1929, the era of golden paper, the era of continued prosperity on a High Plateau.

The stock market crash ended all that. Prosperity dissolved in a frightful panic that left men stunned, too stunned to know that the greatest economic catastrophe of modern times was about to lay its chilling hand on the world.

The climactic day of the panic was Tuesday, Oct. 29. On that day, 16,410,030 shares were traded on the New York Stock Exchange, the peak of all time. Prices crashed down. Nothing could stop them, not even the bankers, or stock exchange officials, or famed economists, or the government of the United States itself. The little people "playing the market" just stood and took it on the chin. Some couldn't take it like the man who blew his brains out.

The year 1929, the year listened to financial district oratory, opened a bright future. But it wasn't long before the hand began writing on the wall.

Speculation in that day was a fever. Everyone gambled on Wall Street. Houses were mortgaged. Women pawned their jewels. Corporations and banks put millions of dollars in the call money market, a reservoir of funds loaned to speculators at high rates—up to 20 per cent and more.

Speculators and others were on record as having borrowed more than $1½ billion dollars, slightly more than half the amount of the 1929 federal public debt.

All sorts of racketeering had sprung up to capitalize on the public fascination in stocks. "Bucket shops" accepted money and orders for stock—and dropped the order in a bucket, betting your guess was wrong and that you would never actually demand that the stock be produced. "Dynamite" worked with batteries of telephones to "blast" victims away from their money in exchange for so-called stocks. Tip sheets provided allegedly "inside" information for a price.

In February the Federal Reserve threatened drastic action to curb wild speculation in stocks. Paul M. Warburg, an international banking authority, denounced stock market operators for "orgies of unrestrained speculation" that could bring on a collapse and a general depression.

Contrary to what has come to be a general impression, traders had to put up more than token cash to buy stocks in the months preceding the crash. In March the stock exchange as a safety measure required buyers to post from 25 to 100 per cent of the value of purchased stock with their own money, with any remainder borrowed.

Late in March the market plunged downward and hundreds of small men and women were wiped out as brokers demanded additional money to match the losses in value of the stocks they were holding for buyers. If it wasn't forthcoming the stock was sold. Thus, to avoid liquidation, a man needed quick money and this demand skyrocketed interest on call money.

When the money lenders, touched by panic, themselves began to call for immediate repayment of their loans, there was nothing to do but throw stocks overboard for whatever they would bring.

But despite somber warnings of a few—like Glenn G. Munn, chief analyst of Paine, Webber, who predicted in mid-August that a crash was on the way—the urge to get rich quick kept money in the market. Prices soared upward and stocks hit an all-time high on Sept. 3. But that same week the market nosedived again in a prelude to disaster.

Wall Street whirled through dizzy advances and retreats into October.

Then the deluge began. Prices came down as October waned. In the two-hour session Saturday, Oct. 19, a wild break tore the heart out of the financial district.

The Monday session opened in a storm of confusion. Investors were wiped out by the scores. Foreign selling flooded the market. The ticker reporting prices lagged so far behind that the general public operated in a black-out.

Tuesday gave a breather, and then the market on Wednesday was rocked to its depths with an avalanche of selling. The unceasing long slide that hit bottom in the panic was "sell-sell-sell! Sell at any price!"

The panic was on. Thursday, Oct. 24, witnessed the biggest, broadest and worst market break in the history of Wall Street—up to that time. Nearly 13 million shares were sold. Prices cracked wide open. A sort of dull horror prevailed.

The market rebounded a little on Friday with the words of the bankers fresh in mind and managed to live through Saturday.

But instead, Monday brought a collapse of stock prices in the entire nation.

Tuesday, Oct. 29, 1929, dawned cloudy. The clock ticked to 10 a.m., and the big gong rang loud over the vast trading floor. In the words of one financier, "Public hysteria reigned unrestrained."

Something had to be done to stop the panic. There were angry demands that the stock exchange be closed, as though the exchange itself was responsible for fortunes being wiped out.

There was no lack of fear before the opening of the stock market Wednesday. But prices went up with a rush. Many stocks, more than regained their tragic losses of the previous day.

Unhappily, brokers stood on the exchange floor and cheered like schoolboys. At the close there was comparative calm in Wall Street. The trading day had to be shortened Thursday to let men rest, and the exchange was closed on Friday and Saturday.

Wall Street kept telling themselves, "Now is the time to buy. Never sell America short."

Actually, the stock market at its worst that November was at its end, with an only about halfway to the end of the long slide that hit bottom in the panic was "sell-sell-sell! Sell at any price!"

The depression was just around the corner.

Keen Sense Of Humor Secret Of Kansas City Manager's Success

Editor's Note — Fourteen years even a Cookingham alumni association when reformers broke the iron grip the Pendergast machine held on Kansas City, a city manager was brought in to set the municipal house in order. L. P. Cookingham's success was spectacular. Here is a report on the man and his methods.

By RENE J. CAPPON

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A taxpayer once telephoned L. Perry Cookingham, the jovial, graying city manager of Kansas City, at 2 a.m. to inform him that a street light on a certain intersection was on the blink.

Yanked from deep sleep, Cookingham discussed the matter politely and got the caller's name and address.

A day later Cookingham returned the telephone call — at 3 a.m. "That light you were worrying about," he said smoothly, "it's fixed." A few splutters from the other end, then laughter. "I guess it serves me right — and thank you very much," the man said.

The anecdote is one of Cookingham's favorites because it illustrates a principle he always emphasizes: Don't ignore complaints, however minor, and keep your sense of humor in dealing with people.

"If you're a sourpuss, you'll never get by as a city manager," he insists.

Judged from Cookingham's reputation in his chosen profession, such ideas have served him well. At 57, and looking considerably younger, he is widely regarded as a sort of elder statesman among city managers.

His trainees, and there are scores of them, have gone to all sections of the nation to spread the Cookingham gospel of personalized administration and technical know-how. Cookingham men have managed such cities as Portland, Me., Columbia, S.C., Phoenix, Ariz., and Tacoma, Wash. There is even a Cookingham alumni association when reformers broke the iron grip the Pendergast machine held on Kansas City 14 years ago, after serving in Flint and three other Michigan cities. "I figured," Cookingham recalls, "that if I held on for two years I'd be lucky." His tenure now is probably a record for survival among city managers of major cities.

When Cookingham took over in Kansas City, a reform party had just broken the grip of the old Pendergast machine. Cookingham, a civil engineer, wasn't concerned with Pendergast when he arrived, but he found the Pendergast legacy distressing. The physical plant — water works, street lighting and paving, sewers and so on — was "run down and neglected."

A year ago the Kansas City Star, which fought hard against the late Tom Pendergast took stock of Cookingham's administration.

Comparing his achievements with those of his predecessor, the newspaper said: "One manager (Pendergast), for each of his 13 years, had a deficit that at the end amounted to more than 22 million dollars. The other (Cookingham) liquidated this deficit and ended each of his 13 years with a surplus never less than a million dollars."

Moreover, Kansas City, once regarded as a roaring and wide open town, has long been decorous and demure enough to be almost on the dull side.

Cookingham is warmly preoccupied with his job. He has no children ("too busy," he grins) and few hobbies. He usually takes a breifcase of home work with him from his huge office atop Kansas City's 29-story city hall.

"I've wanted to be in public administration ever since I can remember," he said. "I've never lost my appetite for the job."

Cookingham was a 16-year-old high school student in Danville, Ill., when he first read in a civics text book about a new form of municipal government called the city management system.

The idea impressed him. "I thought what a swell thing it is," he says, "putting a man in charge who's a trained expert rather than a politician." He has never regretted from that conviction.

During his long tenure in Kansas City Cookingham has never had a serious disagreement with the mayor and city council, although six months after he was in 1950 on the advice of a newspaper his administrative reforms paperman.

produced an abortive movement to have him removed.

Since then, the possibility of his departure has been raised only by intermittent attempts of other cities to lure him away.

"Cooky isn't independent, of course," one official put it. "He's merely essential."

Al Vana (124 pounds), Bud Weick (147) and Almer Senol (157) won Big Ten individual wrestling titles last March for Purdue as the Boilermakers won the team title.

The Brooklyn Dodgers signed the major and city council, all-rounder pitcher Karl Spooner for $600,000 though six months after he was in 1950 on the advice of a newspaper his administrative reforms paperman.

The Basic Idea Behind the All-New 1955 PONTIAC

On Display October 29, 30 and 31

ABOUT 30 years ago General Motors Corporation presented to America a new car called Pontiac. This new car was the direct result of a very specific idea.

The idea was this: to create a car which took its style, its engineering principles and its features from the very best and most expensive in America—and to build these into a car priced just above the very lowest!

Naturally, such an idea produced a wonderful and highly popular car—a car which millions of satisfied owners have driven with outstanding pride and pleasure.

Now, nearly three decades later, an entirely new Pontiac has been created for 1955—a car completely new from the ground up!

One thing, however, about the 1955 Pontiac remains unchanged—its basic idea—to offer the American public the very finest car that can possibly be built to sell at a price within easy reach of any new-car buyer.

When you see the new Pontiac on Friday or Saturday—Oct. 29 or 30—you will be immediately impressed by its remarkable new styling. No other car in the world looks like this new Pontiac!

When you drive it you will be astonished at its performance. For the 1955 Pontiac introduces the powerful new Strato-Streak V-8, an all-new engine that has already been proved in more than 3 million test miles!

When you price the new Pontiac you will come face to face with the basic Pontiac idea—you will be agreeably surprised that so much car, so much sparkling newness, so much luxury, so much downright goodness can be priced so near the very lowest.

We cordially invite you to come in on Friday or Saturday and see for yourself what a superb all-new General Motors masterpiece has been created to carry the wonderful name "Pontiac" for 1955.

Modern Foods Is Household Club Program

The Jacksonville Household Science club met on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 19, at the home of Mrs. John Spencer, 1710 Mound, with Mrs. Ivan Garrison as assistant hostess. "T. V. Meals" was the title of the program presented by Mrs. Tilman Stout, assisted by Mrs. Ernest Stout.

Emphasizing that there is new freedom in home making, Mrs. Tilman Stout stated that the modern housewife is not a servant but the proprietor of a small and efficient business. She now has available to her almost unlimited variety in the canned, frozen, ready-mix, and semi-prepared food lines. The result of such progress in the field of cookery is that good living is a daily affair.

Particular stress was put on the benefits afforded by electricity in today's kitchen. Electrical equipment has brought about three changes in food purchasing and cooking methods. First, food is bought less frequently; second, food can be stored in greater quantities; third, quantity cooking is "big news."

The chief requisite of all meals is to be nutritious and well-balanced, and such is true of the "T. V. Meal." It is only a meal that is served differently, usually from a living room serving table to a lap tray or small individual television table. For such occasions Mrs. Tilman Stout demonstrated one full course dinner, a "snack" plate, and a sandwich plate. Delicious desserts to accompany each suggestion were prepared and displayed.

Using a rotisserie broiler Mrs. Ernest Stout explained how with ease and speed a three-course meal can be prepared and then served from the living room for guests. A tenderloin steak dinner and a broiled ham dinner which Mrs. Stout demonstrated on attractively decorated trays attested to the convenience and efficiency of this method of cooking and serving a meal.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. A. W. Applebee, who also presided at the tea table Mrs. H. S. Porter, Marjorie Wolford, Mrs. Verne Smith, and Mrs. Philip Bradish were welcomed as guests.

The time—March 1912, Juliette Gordon Low had just returned from Europe to her home town of Savannah, Ga. With a dozen girls, Juliette Low held the first meeting of the first Girl Scout Troop in this country. On October 31 this year, more than two million Girl Scouts will celebrate their birthday. The Girl Scouts of Troop No. 49 will tell about Juliette Gordon Low, the founder of the Girl Scouts, on their radio program on WJLS next Saturday morning at 9:45 a.m. It will be the story of the tireless energy and enthusiasm of one woman who shared her ideas with others and to found a great movement.

New York Stock Market

By STEVEN V. DAVID
NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market surprised many of the experts this week by staging a strong advance and holding to a good bit of its gains.
The rails rolled ahead to a new high for the year before profit-taking intervened to chop away some of the outside advances.
Traders and investors appeared to have put aside any concern over the outcome of the forthcoming elections.
For the bullish inclined there was a host of favorable news during the week. Numerous companies declared extra dividends—the usual thing between now and the end of the year. There were brilliant earnings reports as well as

WHEAT ONLY GRAIN MAKING ADVANCES DURING WEEK

By WILLIAM FERRIS
CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat stood out prominently with advances while all other cereals declined on the Board of Trade this week. On a couple of days wheat was the only grain to move upward and it ended the week 2 3/4 to 3 3/4 cents higher.
Among the other cereals, soybeans suffered fairly wide losses, ending 5 1/4 to 6 1/4 cents down. Selling was pegged largely on improved harvesting weather toward the end of the week in Iowa and Minnesota, the two states with most unharvested beans.
Rye also rang up losses of several cents on selling which came from traders who were disappointed that nothing developed on the west coast export business with West Germany. Rye ended 2 1/4 to 4 1/4 cents down.
The weather also was a bearish influence on corn, as were quite heavy offerings of cash corn by the country. The yellow grain ended down 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents. Oats eased off with corn, ending 1 1/2 to 1 cent lower, while lard finished 38 cents lower to 18 cents a hundred pounds higher.
Loose lard firmed during the early part of the week but fell sharply Friday, selling at 13 1/2 cents a pound. That was down 1 1/2 cent from Thursday and 1 1/2 cent from the week's high set Wednesday.

The independent firmness of wheat was based on a variety of factors, including:
A trade report over the week end that another 50 to 100 million bushels could be cut off the Canadian wheat crop. However, Canada had good harvesting weather during the week.
A slight pick up in flour business. This was nothing to get excited about but it apparently created a little demand for wheat from mills.
News dispatches emphasizing a wheat shortage in some foreign countries. It was said Denmark would place restrictions on exports of wheat and feed grains. A report from Belgium said that country needed more grain because of poor yields and low milling quality. Iran put an embargo on exports.
Trade reports stating the United States was making an emergency shipment of one million bushels of wheat to Turkey. It was said Turkey needed about 13 million bushels of wheat to avert a serious shortage this winter. In the last crop Turkey exported wheat.
A belief free market supplies of wheat may become tight later on in the crop year. Those who held this view noted that, in the Southwest, more wheat had been impounded under the government loan this year than last despite the fact this year's winter wheat crop was smaller than in 1953.
The feeling of many grain men that Chicago wheat was the cheapest in the country.
To all such arguments, the bears replied that there still was an enormous quantity of wheat in exporting countries and that none of the really big importers had shown any urgent need for the grain.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

CHICAGO (AP)—Most classes of livestock advanced this week, even hogs ending with gains after having hit the year's lows on Monday.
Features of the week included:
Four loads of average to high prime steers sold at $30.00, highest price since May and equal to the top figure since April.
Four loads of prime heifers taken at $26.50 to $27.50, the latter price being equal to the 1954 peak for straight heifers in load lots. The peak was first set in April.
A small package of high prime native fed wooled lambs was sold to a city butcher at $21.75, the top price since mid-August.
For the week, barrows and gilts ended 50 to 75 cents higher while sows were just about steady, failing to recover much from Monday's price break. A sharp drop in receipts after Monday aided the market.
Steers and heifers generally closed 25 to 75 cents higher. Cows were alone in going down in the cattle section, losing 25 to 75 cents.
Native wooled lambs sold unevenly 50 cents lower to as much as $1.00 higher than last week's close.
CHICAGO (AP)—USDA — Salable hogs 300; sows around steady; choice 180-270 lb butchers 18.35-18.60; choice hogs brought 19.15-19.35.
Salable cattle 1,000; steers and heifers generally 25 - 75 higher; bulls fully 50 higher; vealers steady to 1.00 higher; cows 25-75 lower; bulk prime steers 27.25 - 28.50; choice to low prime steers 24.75-27.50; most good to low choice grades 21.00-24.50; few commercial to low good steers 17.00-20.50; most good and choice grades 20.50-25.00; utility and commercial cows 9.75-13.00; bulk canners and cutters 7.00-9.25; utility and commercial bulls 12.50-15.00; choice vealers 18.00-23.00.

HOG PRICES UP 25 TO 50 CENTS

NATIONAL STOCK YARDS, Ill.
—Hog prices showed an increase last week for the first time in a month with the help of a smaller volume, the weekend summary showed today.
The net gain of 25 to 50 cents reversed a steady downward trend. The Producers Livestock Marketing Assn. attributed the 12 per cent smaller volume in part to pressing field work which kept many farmers at home.
Lambs advanced 50 cents to $1.00 but slaughter cattle, after three weeks of rising prices, encountered buyer pressure.

UNOFFICIAL RECEIPTS

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The Labor Ministry reports India's per capita income averages 264 rupees ($55) a year.

Farm Families To Come Under Social Security

The amendments to the Social Security Act which President Eisenhower signed into law on September 1, 1954, are of particular importance to both farm operators and farm workers in Morgan and surrounding counties. H. J. Vasconcelles, manager of the Springfield social security district office, said Saturday.

The new law extends social security protection to almost all farm families after this year. Nationwide, about 3,600,000 self-employed farm operators will be covered for the first time in much the same way as other self-employed persons already under the program. Farmers will make their first report of self-employment income early in 1956 when they file their 1955 income tax return. The social security report will be a part of the income tax return.

Approximately 2,100,000 more hired farm workers will start building old-age and survivors insurance protection for themselves and their families on January 1, 1955.

This means that by the time they have worked through two more crop years, elderly farm people may be insured, so that they can receive monthly social security checks after age 65. A farmer's family will be protected, too, so that if he should die, at any age, the widow and young children would receive monthly payments. For a retired farmer and his wife, the payments will be from $45 to almost $163 a month, depending upon his earnings, while the family of an insured worker who dies will receive from $45 to $200 a month.

More Jersey Voters Than Ever

JERSEYVILLE, Ill.—The registration in Jersey county for the election of November 2 will top that of previous years, according to County Clerk Edward L. Rody of this city. A total of 9134 voters were on the official list of the 14 polling precincts of the county before the final registration date. Rody estimated that the additions received during the final date of registration will swell the county total to 9250 voters.

During the primary election last spring, two women suffered injuries when they fell down the steps leading into the basement of the courthouse where the votes for First Jersey Precinct are cast.

To avoid a repetition of such an incident, a series of new concrete steps were built from the outdoor entrance to the basement this week, and new concrete sidewalk was put in leading to the steps.

Michigan Eleven, Led By Injured Halfback, Whips Minnesota 34-0

By JOHN BARBOUR
ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Michigan's Wolverines, inspired by injured halfback Tony Branoff, upset powerful Minnesota 34-0 Saturday to loom as a sudden and serious contender for the Big Ten title.
It was Minnesota's first defeat in five games this season.
Unranked Michigan startled the 70,303 homecoming fans in winning back the traditional Little Brown Jug from the Gophers, eighth-ranked team in the nation.
The Wolverines stalled Minnesota's split T attack, allowing only one first down in the first half.
Michigan ground through Minnesota's defense, the second-rated in the Big Ten, for a 70-yard drive in the first period and an 80-yard series in the second, both ending in touchdowns.
The Wolverines smashed through for three more in the second half on drives of 66, 69 and 37 yards.
Branoff, who was back in action for the first time since suffering a knee injury in the Army game, figured in four of the touchdowns.
He was sent in the first time

Fordham Battles Marquette To 14-14 Tie Before 19,500

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The two-touchdown underdog Fordham Rams battled Marquette to a 14-14 tie Saturday in an intercollegiate football game before a near-capacity homecoming crowd of 19,500 at Hilltop Stadium.
Junior Quarterback Dick Broderick, passing for one touchdown and handing off on the old Statue of Liberty play for another, a 73-yard score, was the big gun for the Rams.
Broderick completed nine of 17 attempts for Fordham's entire 135-yard passing total, and cut off Marquette's last desperate bid for the winning touchdown with an interception in the final minutes.
Marquette scored midway in the opening quarter when center Ed Faroez intercepted a pass by Gene Callahan, Broderick's understudy, and lumbered 15 yards to the end zone.
The Hilltoppers earned the tie halfway through the final period with second — string Quarterback Jerry Carmody passing 31 yards to end Dick Varish, alone in the end zone. Stan Andrie kicked the tying point.
Kentucky came to Atlanta as a two-touchdown underdog but Mills' outstanding performance gave the Wildcats the spark they needed to defeat a flat Georgia Tech team, rated No. 15 nationally.
Mills scored one of the Wildcats' touchdowns in the first quarter on a 26-yard pass from Bob Hardy. In the third quarter, after Tech had scored on a 14-yard pass from Bill Brigrum to Henry Hair, Mills blocked Wade Mitchell's attempted conversion.
That one-point margin seemed all-important until only one minute 24 seconds were left. The Wildcats then marched 51 yards in nine plays for another score, Hardy going over from the three. A 15-yard pass from Hardy to Mills and a 16-yard sprint by Dick Moloney set up the touchdown.
The defeat was Tech's second and killed the Yellow Jackets' hopes for a share of the SEC championship.
Kentucky now has a 3-3 record. Kentucky 7 0 0 6-13
Ga. Tech 0 0 0 6-6
Kentucky scoring: Touchdowns, Mills, Hardy, Conversion, Hardy.
Georgia Tech scoring: Touchdown, Hair.

OKLAHOMA TOPS KANSAS STATE 21-0

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma failed Saturday to show the spark that made it the nation's No. 1 football team but the Sooners still were good enough to toy with Kansas State and come up with a 21-0 Big Seven conference decision.
The Sooners were rated 40 points or better than the Wildcats after a 65-0 romp over Kansas last week.
Oklahoma's three touchdowns came in the first half with halfback Buddy Leake scoring twice and converting three times, once following sophomore fullback Jerry Tubbs' plunge for the third tally.

Ohio State Tramples Wisconsin 31-14 For 4th Big Ten Triumph

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's brilliant Buckeyes took a giant stride toward the Rose Bowl Saturday, scoring four touchdowns on seven plays in the late going to wreck previously unbeaten Wisconsin, 31-14.
An 88-yard touchdown run on an intercepted pass by Ohio's Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy in the final minute of the third period broke the contest wide open. Cassidy's long run, which overcame a 7-3 halftime deficit, was the spark which sent the Bucks on to their fifth straight victory, the fourth in Big Ten play.
Until his scintillating dash the Bucks had gained only six yards in two third — period series of downs.
Scenting a Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl trip, Ohio went 69 yards in four plays at the start of the fourth period, sending fullback Hubert Bobo four yards for a touchdown.
Then quarterback Dave Leggett scored on the first play after Wisconsin failed to gain on a fourth—and-13 play on its own 27.
A crowd of 82,636 saw the game. Despite the wide margin in the score, Ohio State was outgained 357 yards to 241 by the Badgers. Wisconsin rolled up 19 first downs to 12 for the Buckeyes. Alan (The Horse) Ameche, Wisconsin fullback, and Bobby Watkins, Ohio's halfback, who were first and second in western conference rushing, wound up in almost a dead heat. Ameche gained 42 yards in 16 attempts, and Watkins 43 in 12 tries.
Watkins added one pass reception for 18 yards.
The victory kept the Bucks a jump ahead of Michigan's Wolverines, who defeated Minnesota 34-0, for their third league conquest. The Wolves and Bucks meet here Nov. 29, and the Big Ten and Rose Bowl honors probably will ride on that tradition — packed game.
The loss left Wisconsin with a 2-1 record in the Big Ten.
Ohio State to wrap up the championship must get by Northwestern, Purdue and Michigan, in remaining conference games, but only Michigan appears to be a threat to what looks like a downhill road to Pasadena for Coach Woody Hayes' boys.

Improving Army Smashes Columbia By Record 67-12

NEW YORK (AP)—Army's fast-developing football team crushed Columbia Saturday 67-12, the highest score ever made in a series that began in 1899.
Everyone on the Army bench got into the battle and 10 men had a hand in the scoring. Columbia fumbles were responsible for five Army touchdowns. The longest run of the game was made at the start of the second half when Tom Bell dashed 68 yards for a touchdown.
This was the highest score ever run up against a team coached by Columbia's Lou Little.
Columbia gave the crowd of 30,000 something to cheer about in the closing moments of the first half when the Lions scored two touchdowns in a little more than a minute of play.

Last-Minute Scoring Drive Gives Pitt 14-7 Victory Over Wildcats

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Quarterback Corry Salvaterra, showing contempt for a heavier Northwestern line and three times gambling on fourth downs, directed Pitt to a 14-7 victory over Northwestern Saturday with a 37-yard touchdown drive in the final 39 seconds.
Salvaterra scored the winning touchdown and set up Pitt's first score in the initial period with his running and passing.
The 19-year-old sophomore thrice gambled on fourth downs and was successful each time. Northwestern attempted it only once but failed on its own 46.
The Pitt Panthers, directed by interim coach Tom Hamilton, scored the first time they handled the ball, moving 66 yards with Henry Ford rallying on a one-yard slant off tackle.
It was strictly a game of fumbles and gambles. Pitt fumbled five times and one of the bobbles resulted in a second period Northwestern touchdown.
After fullback Tom Jenkins' bobble on the two, Fred Nosal recovered, for Northwestern and John Foster, a third string fullback, thrashed over on the next play.
Salvaterra's 14-yard pass to end John Paine and his 17-yard slant around left end to the one set up Pitt's first touchdown.
Aside from the fumble epidemic, a homecoming crowd of 28,862 saw an exciting contest.
But there were nine fumbles in all and in five games now, the Wildcats from Evanston, Ill., have fumbled a total of 30 times.
The victory was Pitt's second of the season. Hamilton took over the coaching duties after Lowell (Red) Dawson entered the hospital 11 days ago with a heart condition.
The game, one of three NCAA contests, was beamed to 36 states.
Last week Hamilton directed Pitt to a 21-19 upset victory over Navy. Northwestern ..... 0 7 0 7-14
Pitt ..... 7 0 0 14-7
Northwestern scoring: Touchdown, Foster, Conversion, Damore.
Pitt scoring: Touchdowns, Ford, Salvaterra, Conversions, Bagamery 2.

Purdue Tops M-State 27-13 In Big 10 Tilt

By ROBERT E. VOGES
EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—LeRoy Dawson, Purdue's sensational sophomore quarterback, passed for three touchdowns and kicked as many extra points to lead his team to a 27-13 Big Ten decision Saturday over Michigan State.
A homecoming crowd of 52,619, largest attendance ever to jam into Mackin Stadium, saw the Michigan State Spartans score first but then lose their fourth game in five starts because of Dawson's inspired driving attack.
Dawson threw touchdown passes in the first, second, and third periods. Ed Zemba went over from the one-foot line for another score in the fourth period to cap the Boilermakers' scoring.
Purdue was on the MSC 34 when Dawson sailed his first scoring pass to Len Zyda, standing on the four. Another Purdue surge carried 97 yards in the second quarter with Dawson passing to Zemba in the end zone.
In the third quarter, after one scoring threat was broken up by an interception, Dawson connected with Jim Whitmer in the clear on the 35, in a pass play that carried 73 yards.
Michigan State scored first to give the homecoming crowd an early lift. The Spartans went 68 yards in 11 plays for the score. Bert Zagers going the final six

Navy Torpedoes Winless Quakers In 52-6 Massacre

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Navy's football forces carried entirely too much firepower for Penn Saturday and sailed to an easy 52-6 victory over the winless Quakers.
Although Joe Gattuso, a powerful fullback, accounted for two touchdowns and made a couple of important tackles, it was a team victory with few outstanding individual performances. Navy, in winning, looked as good as or better than any team in the east.
Penn, losing its fifth straight game, came up with the one big individual feat of the game, Stan Chaplin's 79 yard runback of a kickoff for Penn's only score.
Navy, starting unsteadily and tossing away several scoring opportunities early in the game, hit its peak in the third quarter. Taking advantage of the breaks and some good passing by George Welsh, Navy made three touchdowns in less than six minutes. A platoon of substitutes accounted for two more touchdowns in the last quarter.
By Quarters:
Navy ..... 13 7 20 12-52
Penn ..... 0 0 0 0-6
Navy scoring: Touchdowns, Welsh, Hepworth, Gattuso 2, Smith, Beagle, Burchett, Goyer, Conversions, Tector 3, Burchett.

Bauman Stars As Missouri Trims Iowa State 32-14

By SKIPPER PATRICK
COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—Bangling Bob Bauman, off the shelf only two weeks, smashed over for a couple of touchdowns in leading his Missouri teammates to a 32-14 Big Seven victory over Iowa State Saturday. The win kept the Tigers' victory margin in the running for an Orange Bowl bid.
Bauman, Missouri's fullback blocking specialist, injured in the first game of the season but back in action last week to spark the Tigers to a 20-14 victory over Indiana, crashed over from the one-yard line in the second and from the four in the third period.
Apparently fully recovered from injuries suffered in the Purdue game, Bauman blocked and punched brilliantly as the Missourians moved to a 20-0 halftime lead, then traded touchdowns with the outmanned Iowans in the last two quarters.
Iowa State ..... 0 0 7 7-14
Missouri ..... 6 14 6 6-32
Iowa State scoring: Touchdowns, Potts, Alexander, Conversions, Callahan 2.
Missouri scoring: Touchdowns, Fox, Burnine, Bauman 2, Hunter, Conversions, Roll, Dettling.

CHARLESTON, Ill. (AP)—Eastern Illinois Saturday routed Navy Pier of Chicago 49-6 to score its first football triumph of the season.
Fullback Roger West and reserve halfback Darrell Brown each scored twice to lead Eastern.
West, who also converted twice, scored on 20 and 8-yard runs. Brown tallied on a 38-yard dash and an 80-yard run back of an intercepted pass.
Carnell Neuman's 56 - yard run gave Pier its only touchdown at the outset of the second quarter.
By Quarters:
Eastern ..... 7 0 7 0-14
Navy ..... 0 0 7 0-7
Eastern scoring: Touchdowns, Harr, McDermid, Conversions, Hostetter 2, Drake scoring: Touchdowns, Hendrix, Conversion, Hendrix.

ILLINOIS NORMAL WHIPS NORTHERN ILLINOIS 19-6

NORMAL, Ill. (AP)—Illinois Normal rolled up its second victory to remain unbeaten in the IAC Saturday by downing Northern Illinois 19-6.
Normal spotted Northern a touchdown by Billy Graham in the first period, then scored in the second for a 7-6 halftime lead.
Graham plunged the final foot to cap a drive featured by his 38-yard run.
Jim York drilled 11 yards for Normal's second period tally and Bob Rigenbach ran for the extra point.
Rigenbach scored on a 12-yard run and Don Kelly raced 11 for another marker as Northern added two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.
Worcester, Mass. (AP)—The Holy Cross Crusaders, losers of their first four football games, fashioned a mild upset Saturday, skimming Boston University, 14-13.
Sophomore Dale Hohl was the man of the hour for the Crusaders. He converted after both of his team's touchdowns.
By Quarters:
Purdue ..... 7 7 7 6-27
Michigan State ..... 6 0 7 0-13

Speedy Illinois Backs Break Loose At Last To Gain First Victory

By JOE MOOSHLIL
CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Illinois' speedy halfbacks whirled across Memorial Stadium for five touchdowns Saturday to trample Syracuse, 34 to 6, and snap a four-game Illinois losing streak.
Abe Woodson, swift Chicago sophomore, racked up two touchdowns to lead the Illini offensive machine to its first victory of the season.
Woodson cracked a scoreless tie in the second period, when he took a 29-yard pass from Em Lindbeck, hopped around two tacklers and bolted 30 yards for the score.
J. C. Caroline, playing a brilliant defensive game for Illinois, intercepted a Syracuse pass a few minutes later on the Illinois 48. A penalty moved the ball to the Syracuse 26 before Caroline took a handoff, smashed to the sidelines and danced past three tacklers for Illinois' second touchdown.
Syracuse took the ensuing kickoff and moved 71 yards in six plays for its only touchdown. A pass from Mickey Rich to Ron Taylor put the ball on the Syracuse 48.
Another pass by Rich moved the ball to the 11 and Don Laaksonen crashed through center two plays later for the touchdown.
Woodson counted again in the third quarter, when Bill Micho of Syracuse fumbled on the 5 after the Orangemen had halted an Illinois drive on the 1. Jack Chamblin recovered for Illinois and Woodson scored two plays later.
Harry Jefferson, a 20-year-old sophomore from White Plains, N. Y., brought the Dad's Day crowd of 41,820 to its feet before the third quarter ended with an 89-yard touchdown run.
Caroline took a Syracuse punt on his 11, handed off to Jefferson and the speedster, aided by a block by end Steve Nosek, went the distance untouched.
Then, leading 27 to 6, coach Ray

Arkansas Edges Mississippi 6-0 On 66-Yard Pass

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A 66-yard pass play from substitute tailback Buddy Benson to Preston Carpenter late in the fourth quarter gave Arkansas' Razorbacks a 6-0 victory over the University of Mississippi Saturday, ending Ole Miss' winning streak at five straight.
The result gave undefeated Arkansas, leader of the Southwest Conference, its fifth straight victory.
The intercollegiate game was extra costly to Ole Miss because it counted as a Southeast Conference tilt and knocked the Rebels from the loop lead. Mississippi had not been able to schedule the required six games to be eligible for the Southeast title so the game here was designated as a conference game.
For three quarters the teams battled between the 20s in a test of offensive strength.
Then with only 3 minutes and 13 seconds remaining, Benson threw 31 yards to blocking back Carpenter. He outran halfback Billy Kinard and Earl Blair to score untouched, 14-7.
Stamp's first scoring toss was to hometown end Al Marr for five yards in the first quarter. He hit his other end, Gerald McDermid, on a 16-yard touchdown play at the outset of the second half.
The two-touchdown cushion was enough to withstand the powerful rushes of Gene Hendrix, who scored Drake's touchdown from a yard out late in the third quarter.
By Quarters:
Bradley ..... 7 0 7 0-14
Drake ..... 0 0 7 0-7
Bradley scoring: Touchdowns, Marr, McDermid, Conversions, Hostetter 2, Drake scoring: Touchdowns, Hendrix, Conversion, Hendrix.

Bradley Spoils Drake Homecoming With 14-7 Victory

DES MOINES (AP)—Don Stamp of Clinton, Iowa, threw two touchdown passes for Bradley Saturday as the Braves spoiled Drake's homecoming, 14-7.
Stamp's first scoring toss was to hometown end Al Marr for five yards in the first quarter. He hit his other end, Gerald McDermid, on a 16-yard touchdown play at the outset of the second half.
The two-touchdown cushion was enough to withstand the powerful rushes of Gene Hendrix, who scored Drake's touchdown from a yard out late in the third quarter.
By Quarters:
Bradley ..... 7 0 7 0-14
Drake ..... 0 0 7 0-7
Bradley scoring: Touchdowns, Marr, McDermid, Conversions, Hostetter 2, Drake scoring: Touchdowns, Hendrix, Conversion, Hendrix.

Wheaton Eleven Hands Lake Forest 27-6 CCI Defeat

WHEATON, Ill. (AP)—Wheaton turned fumbles into three early touchdowns and handed Lake Forest its first College Conference of Illinois defeat Saturday, 27-6.
Halfback Fred Brock scored first for Wheaton on a 4-yard plunge in the opening quarter and again in the second period on a 35-yard pass from Jim Erickson.
Fullback Dave Burnham had a hand in the other two Wheaton touchdowns, also in the second quarter, passing to end Orley Heron for one and circling end 11 yards for the other.
Three of the four Wheaton markers followed recovery of Lake Forest fumbles.
Lake Forest scored in the second quarter on a 1-yard plunge by Bob Schill.
Wheaton added a fourth quarter safety for the only scoring in the second half.
The result left each team with a 3-1 conference record.

Indiana Fumbles Give Iowa 27-14 Conquest

By DALE BURGESS
BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—Iowa's Hawkeyes turned three Indiana fumbles into second-quarter touchdown drives, stood off a two-touchdown Indiana rally and beat the Hoosiers Saturday, 27-14.
Earl Smith, a Gary, Ind., boy visiting his home state, scored twice for the Hawks on a sizzling 48-yard run and on an 11-yard pass from Ken Ploen. The second sewed up the game.
Indiana lost two touchdowns, one on track star Milt Campbell's fumble into the Iowa end zone and another on Florian Helinski's pass to Brad Bomba that was nullified by an ineligible man downfield.
Campbell fumbled twice but also scored one of Indiana's touchdowns on a 32-yard run. Burl John Bartkiewicz galloped 33 yards for the other Hoosier marker.
Other Iowa touchdowns were scored by Ed Vincent on a one-yard plunge and Roger Wiegmann on a five-yard pichout.
James Freeman converted three extra points for Iowa and Helinski kicked Indiana's two.
The game was frustrating for Indiana from the start. Tom Hall of the Hoosiers had to kick off three times before one counted. The Hawkeyes were off sides the first time, and Indiana was too eager the second time.
Right halfback Vincent, who was carried off the field with a badly bruised leg in the fourth quarter, was almost unstoppable in Iowa's 80-yard drive to its first touchdown. He broke loose for runs of 21, 11, 9, 8 and 7 yards. He made a 20-yard run in the Hawkeye's third touchdown march and picked up 121 yards all together.
Indiana was back in the game after the long runs by Bartkiewicz and Campbell, the latter only 20 seconds deep in the fourth quarter. But Iowa took the next kickoff on its 14 and drove to the clincher in 18 plays.
By Quarters:
Iowa ..... 6 21 0 6-27
Indiana ..... 0 0 7 7-14
Iowa scoring: Touchdown, Vincent, Smith 2, Wiegmann, Conversions, Freeman 3.
Indiana scoring: Touchdowns, Bartkiewicz, Campbell, Conversions, Helinski 2.

FAN BREEZES

BY BILL WOOD

The regular author of this corner, sports scribe supreme Bill Merris, took to the wandering ways of his predecessor, Bob, and journeyed to Terre Haute with the Illinois College Blueboys this weekend, leaving the typewriter under substitute management.

Shortly before the team's departure Friday noon, we overheard William in the Illinois College union threatening coach Al Miller that he was going to play, not watch, Saturday. Judging from the final score, perhaps he did... though we didn't have the courage to ask him when he phoned in the result earlier in the evening.

Speaking of Journal Courier sports editors, ex-Breezer Bob Merris was back at his old stamping grounds last Saturday to witness the Blueboys' gratifying 125th anniversary homecoming victory over William Penn Bob's running his own newspaper now, the weekly Martinsville Planet, over near the Indiana line.

Illinois College may, in the next year or so, add another sport to its repertoire of intercollegiate athletics. Some of the boys around the new dorm have been talking up the idea of a swimming team. Apparently there are enough swimmers, if only a pool can be found.

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP)—The UCLA juggernaut rolled to its sixth consecutive football victory, Saturday trampling Oregon State 61-0.
For the winners, who ran over 9 touchdowns, it was the Coast Conference opponent Stanford was the victim last week, 72-0.
The most sensational score was halfback Sam Brown's run back of a punt.

TIGER-CATS WIN

HAMILTON (AP)—The Hamilton Tiger-Cats moved within four points of the lead in the Big Four Canadian Football League race Saturday, defeating Ottawa's Rough Riders 25-17. Lou Kusserow and Ray Ramsey scored two touchdowns apiece for the winners.

BRITAIN RAPES RED USE OF WOMEN AS MINERS

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—British Labor leader Sam Watson, a miner himself for 24 years, has a bone to pick with Soviet Russia and other Red nations on their use of women as miners.

Newly returned from a visit to Russia and Red China, Watson said in a broadcast over Radio Free Europe the Communist governments should stop the practice in the interests of "the dignity and decency of working class women."

A visiting Ohio School for the Deaf eleven fell bleeding, 51-14, under the claws of coach Jim Spink's ISD Tigers on the Jacksonville High School sod here Saturday afternoon.

The pattern of the game was set early in the first quarter as the visitors fumbled on their third play from scrimmage after receiving the opening kickoff. Two plays after the mishap, ISD quarterback Al Duncan trotted unmoored around his right end and covered 40 yards to the OSD end zone. The conversion attempt failed.

Minutes later, Jerry Kane set up the second ISD touchdown with a 30-yard sprint to the Ohio twenty. Jack Rampey scampered across the line on the next play, and Kane carried the extra point across.

Staggered by the sudden onslaught, the Ohio eleven fumbled once more on the second play after the kickoff. ISD's Rampey rambled 15 yards on the first play, then Kane plowed 30 for a third touchdown. A pass for extra point failed.

At this point, ISD had scored three touchdowns in eight plays from scrimmage.

The visitors took over again, but were forced to punt deep in their own territory. ISD tackle Ted Schultz picked up a bad kick on the visitors' 20, and Coach Spink put his second string in.

The quarter ended with ISD leading 19-0, in possession deep in Ohio territory.

A 20-yard Mehning-to-Haywood play carried the ball to the 7 as the onslaught continued in the second period, and Bob Benson smashed over the middle for the fourth ISD touchdown. The conversion kick fell short, and the hosts led 25-0.

Once more Ohio fumbled shortly after taking a kickoff. Bob Middlebrook recovered the bobbie. Middlebrook, Mehning and Cullison carried to the Ohio 33, then Mehning raced all the way for another tally. The extra point attempt failed, and the halftime gun sounded with the hosts in possession of a 31-0 margin.

The ISD first string came back in for the first play of the third quarter. Rampey fielded the kickoff on his 14 and zigzagged 86 yards for a touchdown behind beautiful blocking. The second string returned to the field, and a Cullison-to-Benson pass nailed the extra point, making the score 38-0.

Following Rampey's example, ISD's Lomax took the ensuing kickoff and scooted 80 yards to pay dirt. Hykes piled over for the extra point.

Mehning took the Ohio kickoff on his own ten and returned it to the 50. ISD drove to the Ohio 37 before being forced to punt for the first time.

Starting then on their own 14, the visitors put on their only sustained drive of the game, moving on the ground to the ISD 43 where they were forced to kick.

A 34-yard Cullison-to-Benson pass followed by a 20-yard run by Middlebrook put the ball on the Ohio one yard line as the third quarter ended with ISD in the lead 38-7.

Middlebrook smashed over the middle for the touchdown on the first play of the final period, and another Cullison-to-Mehning pass added the point after for a 45-7 margin.

Coming once more into possession shortly thereafter, ISD moved down the field on runs by Middlebrook, Benson and Mehning plus a 20-yard Cullison-to-Haywood pass to the Ohio 27. Middlebrook ran the final 27 yards to rack up ISD's final six points.

Ohio scored their second touchdown in the final minutes of the game on a 35-yard run by Lomax followed by a pass which covered the remaining 39 yards.

ISD took over with only a few moments left in the game and ran the clock out with running plays.

FRIDAY'S FOOTBALL RESULTS

Routt 20, Bluffs 7

Routt's Rockets moved into the PMBC conference lead Friday night as they handed the Bluffs Bluejays a 20-7 eight-man football defeat before a 50th anniversary homecoming crowd of 2,500 on the JHS field.

The inspired Rocket team kept command all the way, jumping off to a 14-0 lead in the first half.

In the first period the Routt line stopped a Bluffs march on the nine after the Bluejays had taken over on the 45 and marched to within striking distance. Likes recovered a fumble on the 45 and Barnett and Graves took turns carrying the ball during the offensive.

The Rockets came back strong in the second period and, with the fine running of Reggie Doolin, scored the first TD of the night.

Routt took over on its own 25 on downs; and runs by Dee and Doolin carried the ball to the Bluffs 42.

Doolin then went around left end for one of the best runs of the night, carrying the pigskin to the Bluffs two. DeVore smashed over the middle for the touchdown on the next play. Jerry Casler entered the game and looted the first of his two extra points to give the Smarjessemen a 7-0 lead.

The second Routt score came just a few seconds remaining in the first half. DeVore set up the march as he intercepted a Bluffs pass on the Bluejay 47. On the next play, the Routt quarterback flipped to Doolin who made the Bluffs 15 before the ground came up to meet him.

Short runs by Dee and Doolin carried to the six before Reg Doolin went around left end for the score. Casler again converted, and the gun sounded with Routt in the lead 14-0.

In the third period, another pass interception set up the victor's third tally. Doolin snagged a Kesterson aerial on the Bluffs 27. Then Dee picked up seven yards on a ground play before flipping a pass to DeVore, all alone on the left side of the field. DeVore raced 20 yards to pay dirt. Casler's extra-point try failed and Routt led 20-0.

The Bluejays rallied to score their lone touchdown on the ensuing kickoff. Harold Graves fielded the boot and scampered 75 yards for his fourteenth touchdown of the campaign. Kesterson passed to Likes for the point after, and that ended the scoring for both sides.

The Rockets gained their fourth conference win against a single tie in this last home contest of the season. Bluffs also has four wins, but the defeat dropped them into second place in the conference.

The Routt line, Dick and Jerry Lewis, Cosruff, Dowling and Woodson played good ball all night and held the hard-running Bluffs backs to a mere 74 yards on the ground.

Routt's backs, sparked by Dee and Doolin, picked up 210 yards. Routt notched 11 first downs while Bluffs could acquire but five.

Routt lost 65 yards on penalties, and Bluffs 15. The Rockets completed three of seven passes for a total of 52 yards, but their opponent's aerial attack simply didn't exist.

The Indians scored again in the second quarter on a 50-yard end sweep by Nunn. Gordley ran for the extra point, and the scoreboard read 13-0 in the hosts' favor as the halftime gun sounded.

Gordley scored an Indian TD in the third period but failed on his smash for extra point. The Meredosia quarterback came back to score his second touchdown—the Indians' last—in the fourth quarter. Nunn ran for the point after. Chandierville scored its lone six-

Lion-49er Tilt Heads Today's Pro Grid Card

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The two-time champion Detroit Lions bunch their steady defense against the running wizards of Joe Perry, Hugh McElhenny and John Henry Johnson Sunday in a test of the San Francisco 49ers' Western Conference championship bid in the National Football League.

Detroit is back at its old stand, powering through three games without defeat, while the 49ers, hopeful that this may be the year to come out of the Lion's shadow, have won three and tied one in four starts.

While the Lions-49ers game figures as the feature attraction, the Chicago Bears invade the west to

Jimmy Martinez, Pedro Gonzales Battle To Draw

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Jimmy Martinez and Pedro Gonzales windmilled to a 10-round draw before a national television audience Saturday night in one of the best middleweight fights seen here in several years. Martinez weighed 156, Gonzales 160.

From the opening bell when Martinez bounced out of his corner slugging till the final bell they must have thrown a million punches.

Twice during the furious action, the two became so involved with each other they failed to hear the bell. Handlers had to vault into the ring to stop the action.

They were toe-to-toe at the finish and went 30 seconds or so before the referee finally heard the bell and jumped between them.

There were no knockdowns and neither man was cut.

NORTH CAROLINA TOPS WAKE FOREST

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP)—Sophomore halfback Ed Sutton sprinted for touchdown runs of 21 and 77 yards Saturday at the University of North Carolina defeated Wake Forest 14-7 in an Atlantic Coast Conference football game which ended in a free-for-all.

Police took the field in the closing seconds to end a fight among the players after Wake Forest halfback Burt Harrison and Tar Heel end Will Frye were ejected for engaging in a mixup.

USC Whips Cal Bears In Bitter Coast Duel

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Quarterback Paul Larson and the California Bears built a roaring fire under the Rose-Bowl bound Trojans, but it wasn't hot enough and USC came out on top Saturday in a bitterly waged contest, 29-7.

Remaining unbeaten in Pacific Coast Conference play, and dealing the Bears a near-fatal blow to their bowl aspirations, the Trojans marched to victory by the margin of a safety scored in the third quarter.

Larson kept the Bears alive with both his running and throwing. He completed 14 out of 18 passes for 167 yards and two touchdowns. And he made a brilliant 84-yard run on a kickoff early in the third to the USC one-yard line and followed it with a scoring smash.

Interceptions, Heat Bedevil Hilltoppers At Hosts' Homecoming

TERRE HAUTE (Special)—The wrong hands kept catching Illinois College quarterback Bob Winstead's passes here all yesterday afternoon.

Rose Polytechnic's aerial-grabbing meatshovels snatched a 14-0 Prairie College football game from Al Miller's battling Blueboys, leaving the local eleven with a two-two record for the season.

The score, however, doesn't tell the whole story. Rose Poly held the upper hand for the entire sixty minutes—Illinois College never got past midfield in the first half, and didn't do much better against the hosts' second string in the final two quarters.

Neither team scored in the first quarter. The Blueboys had possession of the ball twice, but lost it both times on interceptions. Rose Poly picked up a few yards on the ground, but developed no scoring threats.

Rose Poly scored its first TD early in the second period, a pass interception gave the host eleven possession on the Illinois College 40.

The Poly backs moved 37 yards over Blueboys line which was beginning to tire in the heat and finally Terrell Vanover smashed straight over the middle from the three for the game's first score. Blossome hoisted between the uprights for the point after, and the half ended with Illinois College on the short end of a 7-0 count.

Things began to look up a bit in the third quarter when the Miller-men picked up two first downs in a row after stopping a Rose Poly march on their own six yard line when former Jacksonville High school star Bob Scott recovered a fumble. But the hosts held on the 1 C 30, and the Blueboys were forced to punt.

Rose Poly boared right back downfield to the Blueboy 20, then missed a field goal attempt. The quarter ended with the Blueboys in possession on their own 20.

A Blueboy punt opened the final quarter. Rose Poly took over on the 30 and put in a whole new team. Once more the hosts moved along the ground toward pay dirt. The suspense ended suddenly a few plays later when Jerry Garrett smashed off left tackle and raced 36 yards for a touchdown. Garrett ran again for the extra point.

With the clock fast running out, Illinois College took over and tried desperately to score on passes. The ball changed hands a couple of times with neither team building up a real threat, and the final gun sounded with Rose Poly in control on the Blueboy 20.

It was a hot afternoon—for football—in Terre Haute, and the Blueboy first string, which played most of the game, simply wore out under the sun and Rose Poly's squads of fresh linemen.

A Rose Poly homecoming crowd of 1,500 witnessed the game.

Vengeful Steelers Down Eagles, Gain Tie For Loop Lead

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Quarterback Jimmy Fink's sensational passing and the accurate toe of Ed Kissell gave the revenge-hungry Pittsburgh Steelers a 17-7 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles Saturday night and put them in a tie with the Eagles for the lead in the eastern division of the National Football League.

Fink threw a 52-yard touchdown to end Elbie Nickel in the third quarter and set up Lynn Chandnois' 8-yard touchdown run in the final quarter. Kissell kicked a 24-yard field goal and converted twice.

A crowd of 39,075—largest of any NFL football game at Forbes Field—saw the Steelers gain their fourth victory in five games and get revenge for the 24-22 setback at the hands of the Eagles two weeks ago in Philadelphia.

Fathers Of Two Wreck Victims Sue For $40,000

The fathers of two Morgan county young men who were killed in an automobile and truck collision July 16 of this year have filed suit against a Kansas City truck line and the driver, asking $20,000 damages for each death.

Arthur J. Stewart, administrator of the estate of John Martin Stewart, and Roscoe Mawson, administrator of the estate of James Lee Mawson, are plaintiffs in a suit filed at Springfield in Sangamon county circuit court. The Alford Truck Line, Inc., Kansas City, and Ronald D. Fisher, Lamoni, Mo. driver, were named defendants.

The two young men, both 20 years old and juniors at the University of Illinois, lost their lives in a crash east of Curran on U. S. Route 36. The action charges that Fisher drove the tractor-truck and trailer in a negligent manner, was not on the proper side of the highway, failed to have adequate brakes, and was speeding when the truck collided with the automobile driven by Stewart, with Mawson as a passenger.

Harry G. Story is attorney for the Stewart estate; Thomson & Thomson are attorneys for the Mawson estate.

In the brisk, sunny autumn weather, these college students—Orientals, Negroes, whites, Protestant, Catholic and Jewish—had the time of their lives.

"We're away from the social pressures of our homes and schools," one of the delegates told a newspaper reporter. "We can stop thinking of colored people as colored people, and white people as white people, and get to know people as people."

Miss Lenth, who was graduated from Rount high school in 1952, is a junior at Rosary College.

Fire Inspection To Be Held Wednesday

Wednesday, Oct. 27, has been set as the date for the city fire inspection, it was announced Saturday by Wilford Queen, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Committee sponsoring the program. Fire Chief Howard Reynolds said his department will cooperate 100 per cent.

"This type of program is of great importance to our city and the cooperation of all is urged to make it a successful program," Chief Reynolds declared. He indicated the following principal hazards that account for most home fires:

1. Careless smoking and handling of matches — put them out and never smoke in bed.
2. Misuse of electricity, faulty wiring — for the safest operation, follow the instructions on your appliances — know the "safe load" limits.
3. Defective and overheated heating equipment, stoves and lanterns — inspect and clean regularly.
4. Careless handling of kerosene, gasoline, cleaning fluids, etc. — use only approved metal containers when storing flammable liquids — it's deadly.
5. Bad house-keeping habits — clear the attics, closets, stairways, basements of old papers, rags, furniture, because rubbish is fuel that fire loves.
6. Defective or overheated chimneys and flues — check, clean and repair regularly.
7. Children and matches — the smart parent keeps matches and lighters out of reach of the curious youngsters — and teaches older children how to use fire making tools — safely.

In addition to the actual inspection of public and mercantile buildings in Jacksonville, arrangements have been made to have speakers at the schools. Business men and other interested parties are invited to attend a luncheon next Wednesday noon. Reservations may be made by calling Phone 10.

Engelbrecht Boys Bring Back Deer

Melvin and Larry Engelbrecht of near Chapin returned Saturday morning from a hunting trip in the Osborne Bay region of Ontario, with a couple of 150 pound white tail deer lashed to the radiator of their car.

Their two hunting companions, Warren Switzer and Arnold Great-house of Pekin, Ill., also got a deer apiece. One is the limit in the area where the young men hunted.

The Engelbrecht brothers had moose licenses, but were not able to establish contact with any of the big fellows.

The party of four left Oct. 12 for Eagle River, Ont., and hunted about 200 miles north of the border. A portion of their journey to the deer country was made by boat.

Prospects Bright For Three Children With Rare Illness

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Three children in one family, found to be suffering from a rare blood condition, left St. Louis Children's Hospital Saturday with the assurance they will be able to lead normal lives.

Doctors said their condition, congenital methemoglobinemia, is so rare that only 16 cases have been reported in medical literature. The oxygen-carrying pigment of the red corpuscles is unable to transmit sufficient oxygen, causing symptoms which go with heart disease.

The victims are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Dotzert of Beardstown, Ill. They are Jamie Elizabeth, 11, Bonnie Elaine, 8, and David Edward, 3.

Janie Elizabeth was brought here Oct. 11 for heart surgery, but exhaustive tests showed her heart is sound and the trouble finally was diagnosed. Doctors then examined the two other children and found them to have the same condition.

The treatment, described as simple but effective, calls for continued dosage of methylene blue dye or vitamin C, which corrects the abnormality in the hemoglobin. The hospital will make periodic checks on the children.

82 Years Old- Still A Fine Hat

In 1872 Baker Seymour walked into Meyerstein Bros., the leading clothing store in Virden, and bought a black Beaver Steison hat. It was a birthday gift for his father, Richard Seymour.

Today, 82 years later, friends admire the fine hat worn by Edgar Spies of 724 Freeman street, Jacksonville.

At the death of Richard Seymour it went to his son, John Brud Seymour; then to his son, Barton Seymour; then to his daughter, Hazel, who is Mrs. Spies. If all goes well the next owner will be Raymond Spies, who is shown in the photo with his father.

The leather hatband is beginning to show considerable wear, but the felt is still soft and has a fine black sheen.

"It's a lot better hat than any I see in the stores today," Spies observed. "If it isn't lost or burnt up somehow, it ought to last for a long, long time."

The Meyersteins left Virden about the time of World War I and moved to Springfield. Some of their descendants are still in the mercantile business there.

Mr. and Mrs. Spies were reared and lived in the Northville community, where they farmed until moving to Jacksonville nearly three years ago.

Farm Leaders To Tell Opinions Wednesday

Illinois Farmers Outlook Letter

BIG OUTPUTS DEPRESS POULTRY INDUSTRY

Poultry has been the nation's most depressed major agricultural enterprise throughout much of this year. Although there may be some improvement in 1955, profits seem likely to continue to be lower than normal.

Most poultrymen made good profits in 1953. Perhaps they were too good in that they encouraged producers to increase their output too much this year. This situation applies to all three major divisions of the poultry business—eggs, chickens and turkeys.

HUMPTY DUMPTY HAS GREAT FALL. Eggs production has reached a new record high each year for five consecutive years. Output this year will total about 64.8 billion eggs, up 5 percent from last year. Recent prices paid to farmers were about one-third lower than those of a year before. In September a producer's return from a dozen eggs would buy only 8.7 pounds of poultry feed, nearly a third less than average.

Farmers are raising only about 2 percent more chickens for flock replacements this year than they did in 1953 but they got their chicks much earlier than usual. These pullets are now beginning to lay and the prospect is for increasing monthly supplies during the fall and winter. Prices are expected to stay well below those of a year earlier until next spring.

Low prices for eggs this fall and winter will probably cause farmers to raise fewer chickens for replacements in 1955 and this may lead to smaller supplies of eggs in the last half of next year. Profits, however, seem likely to be below average.

BROILER BUSINESS GOES COMMERCIAL. Prices for broilers ranged between 22 and 25 cents a pound during the first eight months of this year, or about three cents below those of the year before. With these returns the larger, more efficient operators were able to pay out-of-pocket costs but many producers were dissatisfied with their margin of profit. As of mid-September, the average price of a pound of farm chicken would buy only 3.9 pounds of feed, nearly a third less than average.

Despite the low prices received this year, broiler production may increase slightly in 1955. This business is carried on largely by highly specialized producers who make a full-time job of it. They are often financed by or are in partnership with feed dealers or hatcheries.

The growers have a big investment in buildings and equipment, and they must stay in business to meet overhead costs and earn a labor income. Specialized broiler producers are turning out 1,650 million birds this year, about three times as many as are other farmers.

A TURKEY FOR EVERY OVEN. Turkey growers are producing about 61 million birds this year. This number is 9 per cent more than were produced last year and the same as the record output two years ago. The increase over last year amounts to 6 percent for the heavy breeds and 16 percent for light breeds.

Farmers of western Illinois will come to Jacksonville Wednesday to report the opinions of Farm Bureau members of this area. It will be one of five such meetings sponsored throughout the state by the Illinois Agricultural association.

Opinions on local, state and national issues have been discussed by members in township and county meetings held within the past six weeks.

Representatives from 17-20 counties are expected to come to Jacksonville. The conference will be held at Farm Bureau hall, beginning at 10 a.m.

Each year the association's 201,000 members are asked to voice their opinions, according to Otto Steffey, IAA vice president.

Summaries of members' recommendations guide the drafting of resolutions which serve as the basis for Farm Bureau action during the coming year, he said. Steffey is chairman of the tentative resolutions committee which draws up resolutions to be considered by the 532 voting delegates representing the membership at the IAA annual meeting in Chicago Nov. 14-18.

Last year more than 25,000 Farm Bureau members met in township groups and discussed such problems as international trade, taxation, farm support legislation and other topics of interest to farmers.

Other report meetings will be held at Mt. Vernon, Monday; Champaign, Tuesday; Galesburg, Thursday, and DeKalb, Friday.

Hunting Along Railroads Has Extra Hazards

Although the fall months bring the hunting season when thousands of hunters eagerly range the fields and open countryside, they also bring a time of increased hazards, warns W. G. Feitner, chief special agent of the Burlington Railroad.

For reasons of safety each hunting season, the Burlington Railroad, like other railroads, must refuse requests for permission to hunt on its property, Feitner said.

In doing so, the railroad seeks to eliminate injuries to hunters and to reduce as much as possible the property damage resulting from careless use of firearms, he explained.

Hunters who trespass on the railroad right-of-way expose themselves to serious injury from moving trains.

On numerous occasions fatalities have occurred when persons walking on or treading from railroad bridges have been trapped and run-down by swift-moving trains. The locomotive engineer is powerless to stop his heavy train when persons suddenly appear on the track ahead.

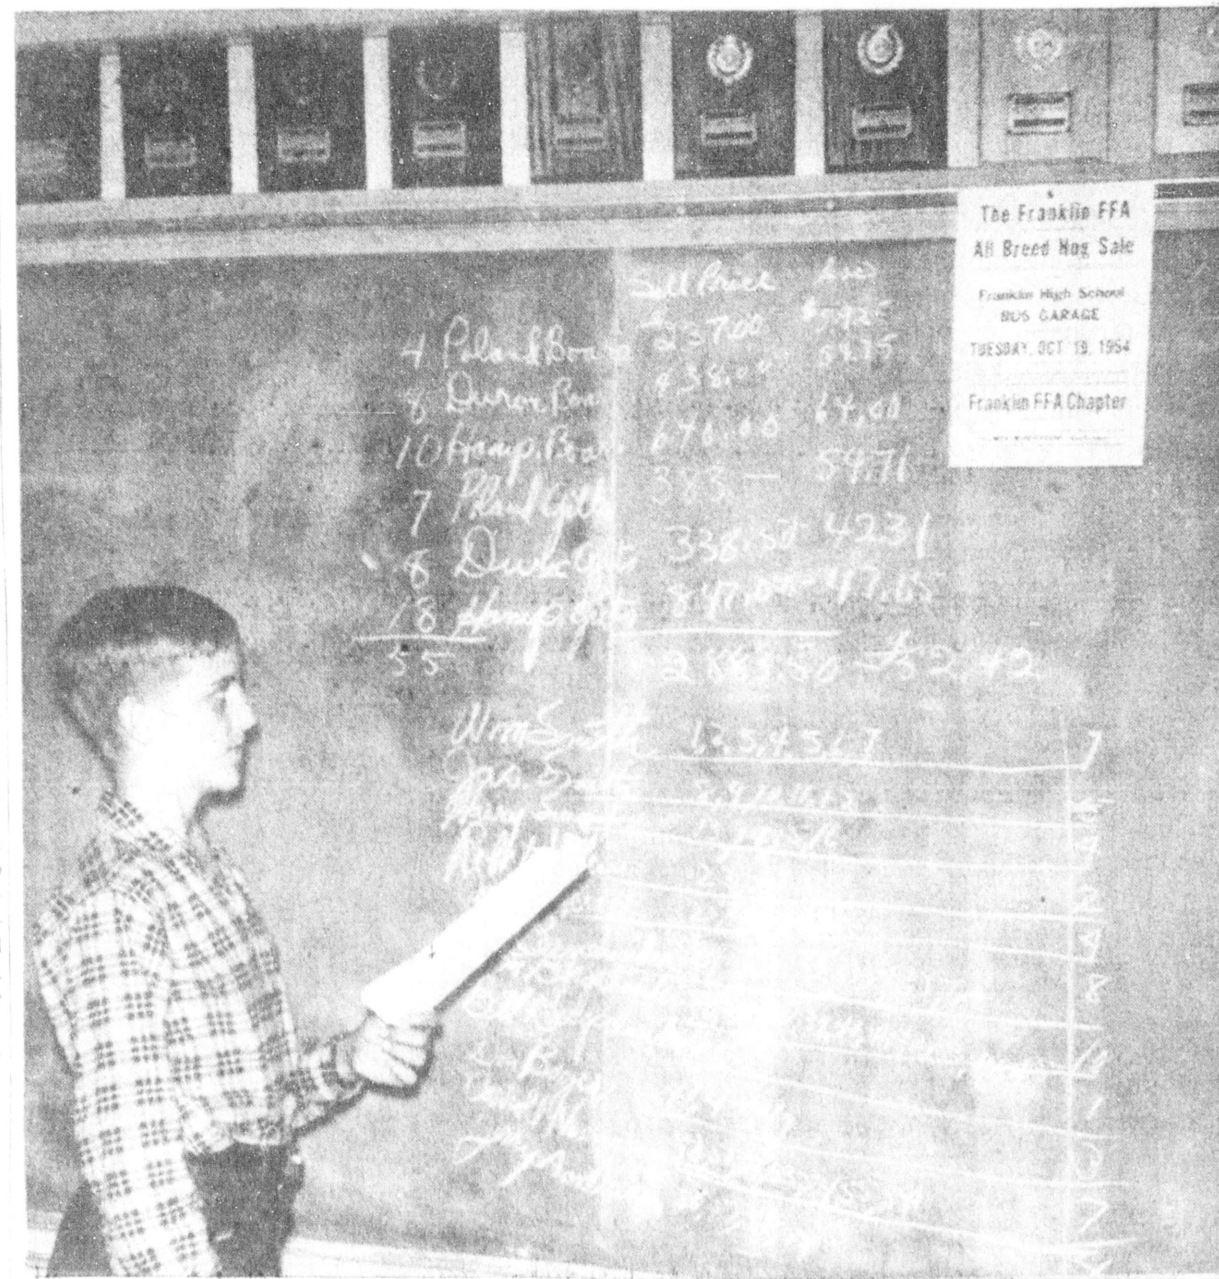

Another consequence of hunting along the right-of-way is damage to overhead telegraph telephone and signal wires caused by hunters who carelessly fire at birds perched on or in line with these facilities, Feitner said.

Recent prices for turkeys averaged around 27 to 28 cents a pound, about 5 cents less than a year ago. At this price one pound of turkey brought enough to buy only seven pounds of feed, about one-fourth less than average. This low return seems likely to bring about a small cut in turkey production in 1955.

ANNUAL F.F.A. HOG AUCTION AT FRANKLIN

When the Future Farmers of America got back from Kansas City where they picked up another Gold Emblem on Oct. 12 they went to work on their sixth annual purebred swine sale. Although only 10 members consigned stock this year

Father And Son Teams Score At Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Three father-and-son combinations won most of the top honors in the final swine and sheep judging at the American Royal Livestock Show Thursday.

They were D.J. Richardson and his son, Harvey Richardson, Elmore City, Okla., with their Chester White swine; Roy B. Warrick and his son, Joe Warrick, Okaloosa, Iowa, with their Suffolk sheep; and Alvin L. Helms and his son, Donald Helms, Belleville, Ill., with their Cheviot sheep.

The Richardsons had both the champion Chester White boar and sows and took ten of the remaining awards in that class.

Roy Warrick's son, Joe, is just 13 but does a man's share of the work in raising sheep, their only line of livestock. They lost only two first place awards Thursday against good competition.

Alvin L. Helms and his son, Donald, 20, have been working together seven or eight years in developing Cheviot sheep. They won every first place award for the breed.

everyone of the 44 students assisted in making the sale a success.

The achievement gives them a fine start toward another Gold Emblem. This award was presented at the national convention held in Kansas City to just 52 of the 8,793 chapters in the 48 states, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

Franklin previously won Gold Emblem awards in 1950 and 1951.

Currently the chapter is engaged in a complex safety contest and next month they'll start a farm and home safety program. Last year their work in the safety field won the state award.

The purebred swine auction was held at the school garage in Franklin last Tuesday evening under the auspices of the chapter's Swine Breeders association. Don Lair is president of the group this year. Charles Doney is vice president and Merle Saxe is secretary-treasurer.

The 35 head of hogs sold by Auctioneer Elmer Middelendorf averaged $32.42.

"We thought this was good, considering today's pork market," Adviser Roland F. Espenschied said.

Of course, some hogs probably sold for a little more than they were worth, others sold cheap. That happens in every livestock auction.

Four Poland China boars averaged $59.25; eight Duroc boars, $54.75; 10 Hampshire boars, $64; seven Poland China gilts, $54.71; eight Duroc gilts, $42.31; 18 Hampshire gilts, $47.05, for a total of $2,883.50. Tommy Bergschneider is shown at the blackboard carrying the exact figures.

Last year's sales expenses averaged $2.88 a head. The chapter hasn't paid all of its bills yet, but the members figure that expenses will run about the same as last year.

Consignees to the auction were William and Jim Smith, Harry Sweet, Robert Mullen, James and John Haveratt, John, Tom and Bill Bergschneider, Don Boyer, Carroll Newingham and Jerry Anderson.

Connecticut in 1911, was the first state to enact legislation on aviation.

Candy, brought $6.05 a pound at auction Friday. Fassett will receive about $7,260 for the Angus from the Williams Meat Co. of Kansas City. Last year's champion steer brought $6.03 a pound.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR ALL GOOD MEN

Each year at this time the Morgan County Community Chest makes an annual appeal for funds with which to carry on the work of our youth and welfare agencies.

If citizens will take the time to think what life in Jacksonville would be like without the worthwhile contributions of these agencies, we believe the response will be generous.

How would the boys and girls of the community fare without the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the Catholic Youth Organization, the Y.M.C.A. and Youth Center activities?

Who would come to the aid of the needy if the Salvation Army should cease its charitable work?

The people of Jacksonville should rally to the support of these organizations, underwriting their valuable services willingly and generously, giving not until it hurts but until it feels good.

Actually the Community Chest represents eight campaigns rolled into one united drive. The opportunity of giving to all of these agencies in a single pledge helps the giver, but it should not result in reduced giving. Every contributor should ask, "If these campaigns were all separate, how much would I give to each?"

This is one time of year when we can all participate positively to promote the health and well-being of Jacksonville. Let's do it up right!

GEOGRAPHICAL SAFETY OUTMODED

In both world wars of the past, we've been fairly immune from direct attack largely because of geography. To the east, the west and the south were the major oceans and allies. To the north, in addition to Canada, was the vast expanse of the Arctic.

For foes with conventional weapons, on opposite sides of the globe, we were simply "too far away" to be handed a knockout blow.

Just how much our position has changed was pointed up rather sharply, we think, by some dovetailing recent news reports. Their messages, briefly, were these:

One. At this year's Moscow May Day parade, the Russians showed off their newest bomber, a long-range, four engine jet which could probably carry an A-bomb to most of our larger cities. Now, in a dispatch from London, a former Soviet Air Force colonel says the number of bombers in action should already be 40 to 60. Planes which are even better, he warns, can be expected at any time.

Two. Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas is willing to go even further. He said in a recent speech that the Reds have developed A-bombing planes which can now fly "faster than sound."

Three. An unnamed Communist, reportedly seeking U. S. asylum, says Russia has set up airplane bases less than 200 miles from the North Pole on two floating islands of ice. The aforementioned long-range bombers have thus moved 1000 miles closer, he claims, to U. S. industrial centers.

Four. American Aviation, a magazine of the aircraft industry, reports of new Red reconnaissance planes "capable of flying over Alaska and even reaching San Francisco." Some intelligence reports suggest that they've already done so, it adds, and are pin-pointing possible targets.

Five. According to other stories, Russian subs and helicopters have been making regular spying missions near and over Canada's Arctic. A chief objective, it's said, is the new Distant Early Warning Line. This is a shield of radar stations intended to give us a six hour warning of airborne attacks from the north.

Fit these reports together and they form an alarming picture. Exactly how true they are is something we cannot know, since the stories, except for one, are not from official sources. But even if only half are true, this much would seem to be certain:

The public must realize fully that our old geographical safeguards at last have been overcome. Our only security now is our power to answer force with force at the earliest sign of attack—and that depends, for the moment at least, on possession of overseas bases.

As our leaders have told us many times, a withdrawal to isolationism would condemn us to death and ruin.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD # — Sunday night's giant diamond jubilee of light telecast will signal the comeback of David O. Selznick, who has accomplished the amazing feat of paying back 12 millions dollars of debts.

The two-hour all-star TV show marks his first return to production in Hollywood since he quit the film business here five years ago. The Selznick saga is one of the town's most remarkable stories.

The son of film pioneer Lewis Selznick, David grew up in the movie business and became production head at RKO when he was 29. There he helped develop stars like Katharine Hepburn, Bette Davis, the cast her in "Of Human Bondage" and Fred Astaire. He went on to MGM and then independent production, making quality films like "Dinner at Eight," "David Copperfield," "Viva Villa," "A Star Is Born," "Nothing Sacred," "Rebecca" and "Gone With the Wind."

Five years ago, his lavish methods caught up with him. He made a series of costly films at a time when the theater market was plummeting. He owed 12 million dollars to the banks.

Some men would have tossed in the towel and gone bankrupt. Selznick didn't. He closed up his studio and devoted his time to nursing his assets and managing the career of his wife Jennifer Jones.

Now he is in the black and is ready to go back into film production. I asked him how he managed his feat.

By five years of concentration," he declared. "It was a matter of liquidating stores and other properties here and making the release of the films I had made. I know the market well, both here and abroad, and my pictures are the kind that can be resold again and again. In Zurich, Switzerland, for example, 'Rebecca' has been released 12 times."

Manners Make Friends

A woman doesn't always have a dress she feels is "just right" for a special occasion. But when she has to choose between a dress that she thinks is "too dressy" and one she feels is just quite dressy enough, it is usually better to take the second choice.

In other words you are less conspicuous by being underdressed than overdressed.

The Bible and Home Life

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.

In the heritage of Christianity from Judaism, the world owes the Jews a big debt, especially in their concept of the sanctity of home and family life.

It would be a mistake to underestimate the ties and responsibilities of family life among other peoples as for instance among the Chinese. Urban and other conditions and the problems of home life from what they were in rural and village communities, and in the small towns of the sort in which I was born.

Only those whose memories go back to the Victorian age can realize how great these changes have been. It wasn't so long ago that a Jewish father was lamenting to me the fact that so many of the young generation had forsaken the old ways, and lost the sense of family ties and responsibilities.

However this may be, a great factor in the strength of the Jews historically in spite of sufferings, persecutions, and tragedies, has been their attitude toward home and family life, and this goes far back into Jewish history and religion.

Christian teaching enforced all that Jesus and the disciples whom He gathered around Him had known in all that Jewish heritage that the Master said He had not come to destroy but to fulfill. Love in all the relationships of life is the supreme demand of Christ's teaching and examples. Love in home and family life is the Christian conception is the only basis of happy and responsible living.

Love between husband and wife, love between parents and children.

All this is so obvious and elemental that it is the common-sense things of life that are the most important, and too often neglected. Is there any area of life today in which the basic and commonplace things of Christian teaching are neglected, and set at naught, more than in this area of marriage and family?

Even in so-called Christian lands the contrast between the ideal, the right, and the wholesome on the one hand, and the separations, divorces, the unhappy and broken homes, the virtually parentless children, and the juvenile delinquents on the other hand, is appalling.

Surely this is the greatest problem facing Christians and the Christian Church, as well as all who are concerned about the social welfare.

This, and the problem of achieving world peace, are the greatest problems. There would be more hope among nations and peoples, if there were more peace in homes, families, and in all the daily relationships of ordinary life.

COMMUNICATION

The Editor, Jacksonville Courier, City.

Dear Sir:

"All Hail to the Principal"

At a recently held school soiree I attended with my husband and family, where goodwill, good fellowship and good food went hand in hand, it was most stimulating to observe the easy and friendly attitude of both Principal and student alike.

Taking our place in the long line of parents and friends en route to the dining hall, we found the Principal and his family were just ahead of us, and were able to see and hear the happy exchange of Hellos and spontaneous greetings as soon as the children spotted their Principal.

Such a shared camaraderie was infectious, lessening the time of waiting, and I was carried away by my own school days when a Principal or Head Master, as he was called, rarely was seen except to preside at the dignified twice annual award giving, or to mete out some disciplinary measure.

In the eyes of a parent, one felt tremendously thankful that such conditions exist in our schools today, and that the student does know that the Principal and teacher are on hand to help him and be a friend to him as was evidenced on this delightful evening.

To all such Principals and teachers who create this happy and healthy school atmosphere, we salute and hail every one of you.

When a boy, Vanauddoll was impressed when an old neighbor of his family walked on the 75th anniversary of his birth from Sugar Creek Hollow in Otter Creek township to Jacksonville, and Vanauddoll made a mental decision to do the same stunt when arriving at his 75th milestone.

Five years ago Vanauddoll observed his 75th birthday anniversary and carried out the decision of his boyhood by walking from Dow to Jacksonville at that time.

During his hike to Jacksonville Thursday morning, Vanauddoll went one mile out of his way to stop at the parsonage of the Bethel church at East Newbern. Enroute home Thursday he stopped at the home of William D. Landon to visit the latter, who observed the 100th anniversary of his birth Oct. 22.

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK # — Many wives of tired businessmen think their lives would be more exciting if they were married to a glamorous stage or screen star.

But pretty, blonde Louise Hoff, a small town Indiana dancer who is now in the big time as a singing comedienne, wouldn't marry a glamorous boy if she won him in a bingo game.

"I've never gone for them—they don't appeal to me," said Louise, who is currently starred in the musical revue, "Bon Voyage," at the plush Versailles supper club. "I'm too much of a farm girl."

Louise intends to stay a bachelorette until her dream man comes along, and her dream man is the guy some wives complain is a boring nightmare—a substantial, level-headed businessman.

"I've met all kinds of men," she said, "and I don't think you can beat a businessman for a husband—a good solid citizen, but one who doesn't overdo being solid."

"I've never even been tempted to marry anyone in show business, although I love show business. People are always asking me why I don't get married. But when you're two weeks here and two weeks there, how can you unless you believe in making snap judgments? I've got that plodding booster mind. I like to think things through."

Louise shocked the strict Quakers of her native metropolis, Spiceland, Ind.—population 600 when she started her dancing career at the age of 13. But her home town is proud of her now, and Spiceland is still the only place Louise calls home.

You don't need a street address there," she said, "and everybody in town calls me 'S.S.'—She Spends her spare hours golfing, her score is about the same as President Eisenhower's and knitting."

"Actually I detest knitting," she said, "but it helps pass the time—until the right tired businessman comes along."

Louise is prepared to knit him a pair of free socks as her dowry.

Weitzel, Career Man, May Be New Comptroller General

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Because the Senate and House of Representatives can't agree on who should be the next comptroller general, the ripest patronage plum in town has gone begging for months.

And the report is that like, impatient with the delay, would like to strike a blow for the career government workers and give the job to Frank W. Weitzel, the acting comptroller who has come up through the ranks.

The comptroller general is boss of the General Accounting Office, which is an arm of Congress created to be the final judge on whether the executive agencies spend their money legally.

To isolate the job from politics as much as possible it was made a presidential appointment and provided with a salary of $17,500 per year for a 15-year term. A recent change in the law permitted the former comptroller, Lindsay Warren, to resign last April because of ill health, before the end of his term and continue to receive the same salary.

An Appointment to the Supreme Court is about the only job you can get with Uncle Sam which is that good.

Ike's apparent decision to forego naming a comptroller, and let Congress decide who should have the job, has created the present stalemate.

It's no secret that the House wants Rep. Sterling Cole (R. N. Y.), chairman of the Joint Congressional Atomic Energy Committee, to have the job. And the Senate has selected its secretary, Mark Trice as its candidate.

For a few weeks, recently, it looked like a compromise had been reached and that Sen. Frederick G. Payne (R. Me.) would get the job. But reverberations from the Maine election upset apparently changed that deal. Now it's back to the Trice-Cole deadlock with Weitzel moving up fast on the outside, according to reports.

Weitzel has a career and personality strikingly similar to that of FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

Weitzel who is 47 years old—and looks 10 years less—and J. Edgar Hoover are both natives of the District of Columbia. Both began working for the government after finishing high school and attended George Washington University Law School at night for a period before going full time to be graduated from there.

Weitzel Started With GAO as a $15-a-week messenger. He was nicknamed "Zev" at that time after the speedy race horse of that day. Hoover had the nickname "Speed" when he first started with the government.

Today both men share a deeply religious strain, are fervently devoted to their jobs and are dedicated to maintaining the integrity of their agencies. Both men are recognized as tops in their fields.

About the only difference between them is that Weitzel is a family man and Hoover is a bachelor.

By the time Warren became comptroller in 1940 Weitzel had established himself as the hard-headed career boy of GAO. During the next 13 years Warren grew to rely on Weitzel's energy, ability and judgment more and more until Weitzel became the logical man to take over when Warren bowed out.

Weitzel's Contribution To the prestige of GAO has been significant. He improved the working relations between the GAO and Congress and ironed out most of the difficulties GAO was having with the executive agencies.

It was largely Weitzel's efforts which brought the mushrooming federal corporations like the Reconstruction Finance Corp., Home Owners Loan Corp., and Commodities Credit Corp., under the standard government auditing system, thereby giving the President improved control over their operations.

Support for Weitzel for the top GAO job is mounting within the cabinet because of the great help he has given every agency in achieving the GOP pledge of greater economy and efficiency. He has worked closely with Department of Defense and the Post Office since becoming acting comptroller in helping them get on a more businesslike basis through improved accounting controls.

The hard core of career government administrators is especially hopeful that Ike will give the job to Weitzel. It would be a boost to their morale generally to learn that a career employee can get to the top under a Republican administration. And they like to work with Weitzel because they get along with him.

Remove meat and chili. Dice meat, add vinegar and mix well. Add celery and mayonnaise and mix. Add more mayonnaise if desired. Serve on bed of lettuce and ripe olives. Yield: 6 servings.

Directions for "Boiling": Place South African rock lobster tails, either thawed or frozen, into large kettle boiling salted water (1 teaspoon salt for each quart water). When water boils, lower heat so water boils gently, and begin counting time. Keep covered.

Boil tails 1 minute longer than their individual weight in ounces. For example boil an 8 oz. tail 9 minutes. Add 2 minutes to all boiling times when tails are cooked frozen. To remove meat easily from shell, drain off hot water, drench with cold water, using scissors, cut lengthwise through center of membrane covering flesh. Insert fingers under meat at open end and pull meat out.

MONDAY'S DINNER: Boiled South African rock lobster, 1 table-spoon herb vinegar, 1½ cups diced cheese sauce, steamed rice or shoe celery, ½ cup mayonnaise, ¼ cup string potatoes, snap beans, shredded unblanched almonds, 6 to 8 ripe olives.

Cook South African rock lobster fresh fruit gelatin, sauce, etc., tails according to directions. Drain milk.

Attitude of Hostess Makes Party a Success or Failure

Women go to a great deal of trouble to entertain. For some it pays off handsomely because the hospitality they offer is eagerly accepted and generously enjoyed.

Others who try just as hard, and sometimes harder, produce one dull evening after another. They know something is wrong, but don't know what.

The main difference between the good hostess and the poor one is a difference in attitude.

The good hostess really likes to get people together in her own home. Entertaining to her isn't a dreary chore, but a real pleasure.

With that attitude to start with, it naturally follows that she will do everything to insure her guest, having a good time, from bringing together only people she feels will enjoy each other, to putting each guest in the best, most flattering light.

PARTY TO "REPAY" GENERALLY FLOPS

But the hostess who talks about "having to have a party" or "having to pay people back" starts off on the wrong foot. She is so concerned with "repaying obligations" she almost forgets about the enjoyment of her guests.

In order to "repay," as many people as possible, and not to waste a place on anyone she doesn't "love," however much that person might add to the party, she often gets together people who have to struggle to make conversation with each other.

And because she has dreaded giving the party in the first place, her whole attitude becomes overanxious and distracted, instead of easy and friendly and relaxed.

You can almost hear her sigh with relief, "Thank goodness I've got this out of the way," when the guests begin to leave.

So if you want to be a really gracious hostess begin with the thought, "This is going to be fun."

Everybody benefits... Everybody gives

Open the door... then open your heart

Who's there?

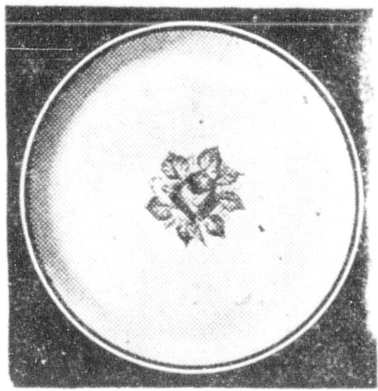

It could be an abandoned child, an old woman, the sick of body, the sick of mind. It could be a crippled boy, a handicapped worker, a young mother. Or a kid who never had a chance, or an old man who needs another one.

No, it's not these people who knock at your door. Just one man knocks—your Red Feather volunteer. But he speaks for them and for all the others in our town who need help so much and can't ask.

What will you tell him when he comes? This year, let your heart answer. This year tell him, "Sure, neighbor, I'll help."

JIM DUNN continued: "The killer found Angelica with the doll she had removed from the hiding place. The killer saw the money. Perhaps Angelica was defiant. The killer was used to corporal punishment, to inflicting it on others. The killer believed firmly it was easy to get away with murder. The heavy, deadly pieces of pitch were handy. One was snatched from the pile and blows were struck." Mrs. Oswald's black eyes glittered, but she made no interruption.

"There was time then," Jim went on, "to arrange the accident. Angelica was pulled beneath the elevator, and the heavy weight was raised and dropped on her body."

"Stop it!" Agnes Argyle's voice was hoarse. "Only one person here fills all the requirements," Jim said. "One person delighted in inflicting corporal punishment, one person wore a bathing suit, still wet from replacing the stones in the creek to stop up the underwater entrance, when we all drove up from The Spires, and one of you at least is acquisitive enough about 'small' things to send over word I was not to catch any of her fish."

Jim wet his lips. He switched his eyes to Philip Stoneman. "In your story, you and Mrs. Hilton had the same idea. The idea of checking to see that the boat had not been used."

"Right," Philip said. His eyes were watchful.

"Tell me again," Jim demanded.

"I went to the boathouse to check," Philip retorted. "Mrs. Hilton was there already; she had had the same idea. She touched the oars to make sure they were wet." He turned suddenly toward the woman. "Remember how I scribed your hand with turpentine. 'Out, out, damned spot,' we said."

Jim held his own palm up for inspection. "A part of the stain on her hand was like this one." "Yes. The hard part to get off. What is it?"

"Pitch," Jim said.

"You—you killed my girl!" Sheriff Agnes' voice was terrible.

Mrs. Hilton backed away from her. "Keep away from me. Nothing can be proved. I want my lawyer."

Agnes laughed again. "Lawyer? You'll need no lawyer."

Mrs. Hilton turned and ran from the room, slammed the door behind her. Agnes moved quickly. Jim caught her, held her.

"She won't go far," Jim said. "I've locked my car."

her child. The speedboat was fairly skimming water now. Jim saw Mrs. Hilton turn to watch them, saw her laugh.

Agnes Argyle raised her arm and aimed. Mrs. Hilton saw the grim, waiting figure, apparently saw the gun. She swerved the boat as the gun went off with an echoing report. A tower of water leaped up with the impact of the heavy slug.

But Mrs. Hilton had turned too fast. The racer leaped from the water, flipped over, completed a reverse turn. Mrs. Hilton was thrown high in the air, came down to land heavily on the sinking craft. The sound of her landing was loud in the silence.

MRS. OSWALD came away from the phone as Jim and Nancy went through the drawing room.

"I want to know what you're going to do?"

"Report to the proper authorities," Dunn said.

Sheriff Agnes Argyle said, "That's me. I'm the proper authority."

"All right," Jim agreed wearily. "So I've reported to you."

Mrs. Oswald's black eyes snapped. She pulled her withered body even more erect. "You'll hear from me, Mr. Dunn. You won't lose by your actions. Now, if you'll excuse us? There are things to be arranged."

Mrs. Oswald had her hand on Mrs. Kit's arm. "You chose wisely when you chose Mr. Dunn. Now, we must make our plans, Mrs. Peter. There was just enough hesitation to stress her use of that name."

Jim saw the pleasure, the resolution, flood over his client's face. She had reached the Carlson inner circle. From the back-ground came a deep sigh of content from Mrs. Gelstrap. Kit said, "Yes, Mrs. Oswald."

The old woman turned to face Agnes Argyle. "And you, Mrs. Toby?" She was uncertain enough to make it a question.

Agnes Argyle shrugged her bony shoulders. "I'll stand by you, Mrs. Oswald."

MORGAN - SCOTT HOME BUREAU NEWS

Lots of things are happening around the Home Bureau office these days. Big plans are being made for the Morgan-Scott 18th annual meeting.

This is an event that all Home Bureau members should attend. The date is October 28—starts at 9:30 a.m.—and will be held at the Central Christian church in Jacksonville. Luncheon reservations are $1.40 and should be made at the Home Bureau office by Monday, Oct. 25.

Out speaker for this event—proves to be a very interesting one. Her name is Sky Eyes. She is of Indian ancestry and has fine sympathetic understanding of her people. Although she can ably interpret the traditional ceremonies, dances and chants of the American Indian—her program is also very informative and inspiring. Her subject at our annual meeting is "Stop Being Afraid and Live Longer."

Another high point of the annual meeting is the awarding of the Traveling Gavel to the Unit with the highest percentage in attendance. It's open competition—any

Unit can bring members and start on their own road to winning it. It's Time For Stew

If you have Irish ancestry, you know that savory stews are a favorite on chilly fall nights. They are easy to prepare, economical and tasty whether you use lamb or beef, cabbage or other vegetables. There's lots of lamb and beef now. And you can expect them to remain economical buys during the coming months. Fresh vegetables are also plentiful. Why not combine the two? Many meat and vegetable combination dishes will please your family.

Cabbage, carrots, onions, turnips, new potatoes and beans are all delicious in vegetable-beef or lamb stew.

To enhance the flavor of stews, brown the meat well and season it before you add the liquid. Also, if you flour the beef before it is browned, you will have a browner and tastier stew and you may not need to thicken the gravy later. Unless you cook your stew in a pressure cooker, let the meat simmer for about two hours and add some more liquid if necessary.

Put the vegetables in when the meat is almost done. Prepare vegetables the same size so that they will be done at the same time. Let the entire stew simmer for about 20 minutes. Cook whole onions 10 to 15 minutes longer than other vegetables.

Home Adviser

Most of us who have carried a lunch to school or work are well aware of the monotony that goes with the usual sandwich, fruit and cake routine. Homemakers are faced with the problem of combating monotony in the preparation of lunch pails for school age youngsters and working adults. While the old-fashioned box social is no longer a popular event, we might check a few of the frills and fancies included in these deluxe packages for suggestions that could brighten up that take-along meal.

Pretty wrappings don't increase the value of a gift nor will they increase the nutritive content of a lunchbox, however, there is nothing so effective in stimulating interest and appetites as a dash of color. A gayly printed paper napkin tucked in with the food and the use of colored paper cups will meet the approval of all lunch toters. A bright paper cup can be as inviting for its contents as for its color. Try filling it with potato salad, cole slaw, cottage cheese or other favorites. These cups also make handy containers for a limitless variety of desserts. Let's look at a few that are simple to prepare and pack. Take rice pudding, baked apple, or fruit gelatin for example, or chocolate pudding—what youngster wouldn't be pleased to top off a meal with that. A popular item at the old box socials was broiled or fried chicken. When the lunchbox menu has been heavy with sandwiches, a drumstick or some other piece of chicken might be a welcome change. This can be safely transported when of bright ribbon.

trick which eliminates the sandwich. It calls for a slice of beef or ham and a slice of cheese. Place the cheese inside the meat and roll into a cornucopia. A slice of pickle may be tucked into the center to add a bit of color and flavor. Stuffed hard-cooked eggs can also substitute for a sandwich or eggs can be served as an appealing extra for the lunch. Rolls or buttered bread might accompany any one of these "main dishes."

Sandwiches will be less dulling to appetites when different breads are used. An entirely "new look" and new taste appeal can be created by combining old standby fillings with date-nut, raisin, oatmeal, rye and wholewheat breads. Gingerbread with cream cheese or cornbread spread with peanut butter and jelly will also spark sandwich fare. Variety can be obtained, too, by using rolls occasionally. Children especially like the surprise of hamburger and wiener buns that have been scooped out and filled with ham or egg salad, chopped wieners and relish, or cheddar cheese and chopped nuts. To borrow again from the fancies that filled the old-time lunch box, attractive tidbits such as nuts, decorated cookies, candy treats . . . any one will make each take-along meal an adventure in eating. Probably dad wouldn't care for it in the lunch he takes to the job or to the field, but the children will get a kick out of seeing donuts in the box tied together with a bit of bright ribbon.

We are told that the old-fashioned lunch box supper usually involved hours of preparation. The modern homemaker, however, has many assistants to speed up the job for her. There are partially prepared foods on the market; scores of enticing suggestions can be found on the food pages of magazines and newspapers. Food store ads provide material for menu plans by featuring items in plentiful supply. For instance, during October there will be good supplies, and good values, in beef, fryers and broilers, cheese, cabbage, rice and dairy products. Each of these specials can make a nutritious and appealing addition to the modern lunch meal. By borrowing something from the old and using much of the new, homemakers can easily prepare a good variety of appetizing foods dressed up with a small bit of imagination—a combination like that will have each lunch totting member of the family looking forward to the noonday meal with anticipated pleasure.

Only one team in American League history won as many as 90 games and finished fourth. Cleveland in 1950 won 92 but finished behind New York, Detroit and Boston.

If Lincoln, Douglas Were Campaigning Today Chances Are Slim Debates Would Be On TV

NEW YORK (AP)—Assume in this season of elections, 1954, that Abe Lincoln was running for the Senate as a Republican.

Assume also that he was of a mind to clash on the hustings with his principal opponent, Stephen Douglas, of the Northern Democrats, in fair and open debate.

In this miraculous age of the microphone and the TV camera, would you think citizens across the nation would be able to hear and see from the comfort of their living rooms these giants of oratory lock horns in a modern version of the classic Lincoln-Douglas debates?

If your answer is yes, you're overly optimistic. The odds are against it. Such debates, while carried fully by newspapers, would not be carried live and as a public service by the broadcasting media of television and radio.

The fly in the ointment is Section 315 of the Federal Communications Act. This potent regulation requires the nation's 3,000-odd radio stations and 400-odd TV channels to provide equal time for all candidates for public office. Therefore, if the networks set out to give complete coverage to the debates of Lincoln and Douglas, they would have to provide—under pain of having their licenses lifted—a like amount of time to all other candidates for the same office. When Lincoln and Douglas ran there were only two other contenders.

But just as an example, suppose Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson could have been persuaded to debate during the last campaign. They were only 2 of 18 presidential candidates.

Under Section 315, the networks would have been obliged—on demand—to stage eight other debates lasting the same length of time between such candidates as, for example, the flagbearers of the Prohibition and Vegetarian parties.

While there is only a hazy knowledge of Section 315 on the part of the public, it is an important chapter in the professional politician's bible today.

A few months back, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York took to the airwaves to announce his decision to retire from public office. His voice was hardly still when the network was in receipt of three separate demands for equal time to answer his "political" speech. The Radio City boys were more amused than distressed by the demands. While it looked good in print, all concerned knew full well that there was no legal ground for the request; Dewey was not a candidate for public office, and the section covers only candidates.

On the surface, Section 315 looks eminently fair, reasonable and seems to assure that all candidates even those representing tiny minorities have a chance to be heard. But many persons in broadcasting feel that the section actually prevents the voting public from all the potential educational benefits of radio and TV.

A while back, for example, a major network was interested in having Steven Derounian, a freshman congressman who is foreign-born, as a guest on one of its programs. At the time he was a candidate for re-nomination. But it also happened that a couple of local Long Island men had announced they were available for the job. Derounian never appeared. The network would have been forced to give equal, nationwide time to a couple of other men in whom there was something less than national interest.

Many network officials believe that Section 315 actually is unnecessary to insure a square deal for the partisans. They say both major parties would receive approximately equal exposure whether or not the regulation was on the books.

"Public opinion would force that," one executive declared.

ADOPTED

Arthur William, five year old son of the late Ralph and Ruby Buchanan, was the first of six children to be legally adopted since their parents lost their lives in separate tragedies.

In Morgan county court on Oct. 19, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Spradlin, 619 South Koscusko street, were awarded the legal adoption of William Arthur, who takes the name of Spradlin. The boy is a nephew of Mrs. Spradlin and has made his home with she and her husband since the death of his mother. The Spradlins have one other child, Ann, a pupil in the eighth grade at David Prince Junior high school.

The father of William Arthur was killed in an automobile accident; his mother drowned in the Illinois river June 28, 1953, while attempting to save the life of a child who had waded out too far.

Mrs. Buchanan and her six children were living at Milton, Pike county, in a home purchased by popular subscription at the time tragedy struck the family the second blow.

Use Salt To Fight Malaria In Jungle

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
The Associated Press

Salt is the newest weapon used to save human lives in the back country of Brazil.

A drug which combats malaria, chloroquine, is added to the ordinary salt shipped to those living in remote areas of the country.

Each day they get a protecting dose of the drug from the salt added to their food.

The medicated salt has become the third main weapon used in a health campaign to wipe out malaria, which only a few years ago was the leading killer disease in Brazil.

The first method was widespread mosquito control, especially through use of DDT. Second was free distribution of chloroquine in thousands of villages.

But many areas were unsuitable for DDT spraying, or handouts of chloroquine. The medicated salt idea to protect people in such regions is credited to Mario Pinotti, a leader in the malaria campaign who later became minister of health.

Cooking doesn't affect the drug in the salt. Chloroquine is added at main distribution centers before the salt is shipped to isolated areas.

The idea is one which might well be adopted elsewhere.

Shortly after World War II, Brazil had some eight million cases of malaria a year, health officials say. It was sapping the strength of entire communities, and weakened workers were unable to produce normal amounts of food or goods.

Thousands of workers were organized into teams to spray homes and villages in malaria zones with DDT, and to drain mosquito breeding grounds. The antimalaria army has a fleet of trucks, a flotilla of 68 launches, even some airplanes to carry men and supplies out to battle mosquitoes each year.

Mother And Son Duplicate Roles In Broadway Show

By WILLIAM GLOVER

NEW YORK (AP) — If you think mother always knows best, meet June Walker and John Kerr. With them it's different.

Currently these two are providing a unique experience for Broadway showgoers as the only real-life mother and son combination ever to duplicate those roles in a drama.

Investigation backstage at "All

Summer Long," where they are engaged, discloses some other unusual items:

1 Mother didn't plan or even suggest son's career.
2 The results of that career haven't followed maternal expectations.
3 He, not she, gives the advice on acting.

Says Miss Walker, who back in the '20s was the most sought-after ingenue on Broadway:

"I never even mentioned a stage career to him, but when he showed interest in the theater, I thought it would be a good idea to let him find out what hard sledding it was. 'What a mistake that was!'"

In the three years since John, now 22, settled down to acting after finishing Exeter and Harvard, he has achieved a steady series of critical raves for his work in three shows — "Bernardine," "Tea and Sympathy" and "All Summer Long."

"He's a student, and I'm not," says Miss Walker, who is now separated from her husband, Geoffrey Kerr. "Sometimes he suggests things to me about my acting. And they're always good suggestions. But suggest to him? Oh, I would never do that!"

Kerr wasn't around to hear the motherly comments, however, for although there is a happy, warm relationship, the two find joint interviews mutually "inhibiting."

Over in his dressing room, John shed some light on how they both happen to be in the same show.

"Actually, Mother was cast before I. Mother had been playing faded, Southern belles in a lot of recent shows. When I read this script, I suggested her to Bob (Robert Anderson, the author). I don't think he'd ever seen her in a show, but he took the suggestion."

Mrs. Ralph Beck Heads Democratic Women's Club

CARROLLTON—Mrs. Ralph Beck of Roodhouse was elected president of the Greene County Democratic Women's Club at their annual election of officers held Friday evening at a business and social meeting in the local American Legion hall. Mrs. Beck succeeds Miss Ada Camerer of this city.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Ruth Hite, White Hall, vice president; Mrs. Rial Jonett, Carrollton, treasurer; Mrs. Orville Stout, Carrollton, secretary and Miss Ada Camerer, Carrollton, publicity.

Terre Haute is French for "high land" and the Indiana city stands above the high-water line on the east bank of the Wabash.

WILL YOUR CAR GO SOUTH FOR THE WINTER?

If you are going to drive around in a tropical paradise from now until next June there is no reason why you should pay any attention to the following suggestions: Your car needs special preparation for winter just as much as you need a furnace fire, an overcoat, and all the other special equipment for freezing temperatures, ice, snow, slush and storm.

It will not only save you much money but assure safety and comfort on the road if you will now—without further delay—have your car checked over and prepared for the cold months ahead.

Most of our repair business all winter is on cars that were neglected in October. Owners could have saved about 90% of those bills by doing the obvious things before winter really arrived.

What are you going to do about it? Yes, indeed, we have everything necessary—this is a really up-to-date motor car maintenance establishment. Drive in any time.

Queen Mother Of England Arrives Tuesday For Visit In U.S., Canada

Editor's Note—When she consented to marry a man who could become King of England, Lady Elizabeth Strathmore insisted on avoiding the pomp of royal routine. But history would not have it thus, and she reigned as Queen. Here is a story which reads more like a fairy tale than the true account of the experiences of a girl born at the dawn of the 20th century.

By ALVIN STEINKOPF
LONDON — A pleasant Scots-woman will step down the gangplank of the biggest ship afloat next Tuesday in New York. Two things will set her apart from the hundreds of other passengers: The Queen Elizabeth, on which she is traveling, bears her name. She is a symbol of the dignity, power and ancient tradition of the British monarchy.

Now the Queen Mother, but once a Queen herself, her three-week visit will have its stiff and formal aspects. But Americans who come in close contact with her will sense that here is not only a Queen, but a warm-hearted friendly woman.

She smiles readily, her wit is quick and kindly and, when her mood was not darkened by personal misfortunes or national danger, she was a merry Queen.

She will be honored at ceremonies celebrating the 20th anniversary of Columbia University, attend a state dinner at the White House, visit Richmond and Williamsburg and end her tour by receiving the homage of Canadians at Ottawa.

The United States will not be strange to her. She has been there before. She and her husband, the late King George VI, got a ticker tape reception in New York in 1939.

Instructed by President Roosevelt, she learned how to manage a hot dog at an American picnic.

And a favorite recollection of the late King was a story concerning the senator from Texas (not precisely identified) who at a reception admired the Queen in speechless admiration for a moment, and then exclaimed, "Ma'am, you sure are a thousand times prettier than your portrait."

The Queen Mother always thought it convenient to have been born in 1900. Now, at 54, a widow for almost three years, she has been relieved of many of her royal responsibilities and appears determined to live in the most remote corner of Scotland, content with the memories, and the social and welfare activities which would throw no conspicuous light upon her.

But Britain, managed by shrewd men, is not averse to using her occasionally as an informal ambassador. Behind the visit to America there are two urges: The gracious Queen Mother wants to meet and chat with her many friends in the United States and Canada and — to politicians who calculate more coolly—such a visit cannot fail to be good for Britain.

The life of the Queen Mother sounds more like a fairy story than something that could have happened to a girl and woman in the first half of the 20th century.

Although she regards herself as a thorough Scot, the Queen Mother was born in England, at St. Paul's Waldenbury, on Aug. 4, 1900. She was Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, the ninth of the ten children of the 14th Earl of Strathmore.

The earl's family divided its time among his four houses. The two Elizabeths remembers best are the one in which she was born—which has an "enchanted wood" nearby in which she, her youngest brother and her father often went in search of fairies—and foreboding Glamis Castle, near Dundee in Scotland. Glamis is said to have provided the setting for Shakespeare's tragedy, Macbeth, and is liberally supplied with tales of ghosts.

Almost every year the earl and his family had an interlude in London. For the smaller children it was a season of pantomimes and polite parties. There was a bit of destiny for Lady Elizabeth, then 5, at one of the parties at Montagu House. One guest was a shy 10-year-old boy who couldn't get into the spirit of the fun because he was embarrassed by children who insisted on finishing his halting sentences. But little Elizabeth didn't finish his sentences, and then he stopped stammering.

When it was time to go, the self-possessed little daughter of the earl held out her hand and said, "Goodbye. I expect I shall see you again. What's your name?"

"Bertie," said the little lady, not knowing that he was the second son of the Prince of Wales. The prince was to be George VI, whom she married.

Jackson-Hermes Rites Solemnized At New Berlin

At a nuptial mass at 9 a.m. Saturday in St. Mary's church at New Berlin, Miss Marie Catherine Hermes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett J. Hermes, of New Berlin, became the bride of Russell Lee Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Jackson, of Jacksonville. Rev. Charles Fanning, celebrant of the mass, performed the double ring ceremony.

Attending the couple were Miss Helen Hermes, sister of the bride, maid of honor; Miss Agnes Jackson, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmaid; Rose Marie Angelo, niece of the bridegroom, flower girl; Robert Jackson, brother of the bridegroom, best man; Albert Jackson, another brother, groomsmen, and John Angelo, of Jacksonville, and James Carl Coop, Alexander, ushers.

Wearing a floor length gown of floral patterned French lace and nylon tulle over lustrous bridal satin, the bride was given in marriage by her father. The deftly shaped bodice of softly gathered tulle, was topped with a long sleeved lace bolero which buttoned down the front below a demure Peter Pan collar.

Lace in a handkerchief panel effect continued to the hipline of the billowing tulle skirt which belled out over ermine. The fingertip veil of bridal illusion, edged in lace, fell from a lace tiara etched with seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid.

A reception was held from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Dunlap hotel in Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will be at home three and one-half miles east of Woodson upon returning from a brief wedding trip.

One third of the net proceeds of the drive was forwarded to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to be used for polio prevention. The balance has been divided equally between the local chapter and the National Foundation.

The 4-H Club program is sponsored by the Extension service of the University of Illinois and the County Home and Farm Bureau. If your child is not already enrolled in one of the 15 Agricultural or 10 home economic clubs in the county contact Mrs. Ethel Belote, home adviser, W. H. Brown, Jr., farm adviser, or Jerry Weckend, assistant youth adviser.

Any one of the three will assist in forming a new club in any area of the county where there is a group of five or more children who wish to belong to a club in a community in which no 4-H club has yet been organized.
